*THE FINAL
MASTERPIECE*

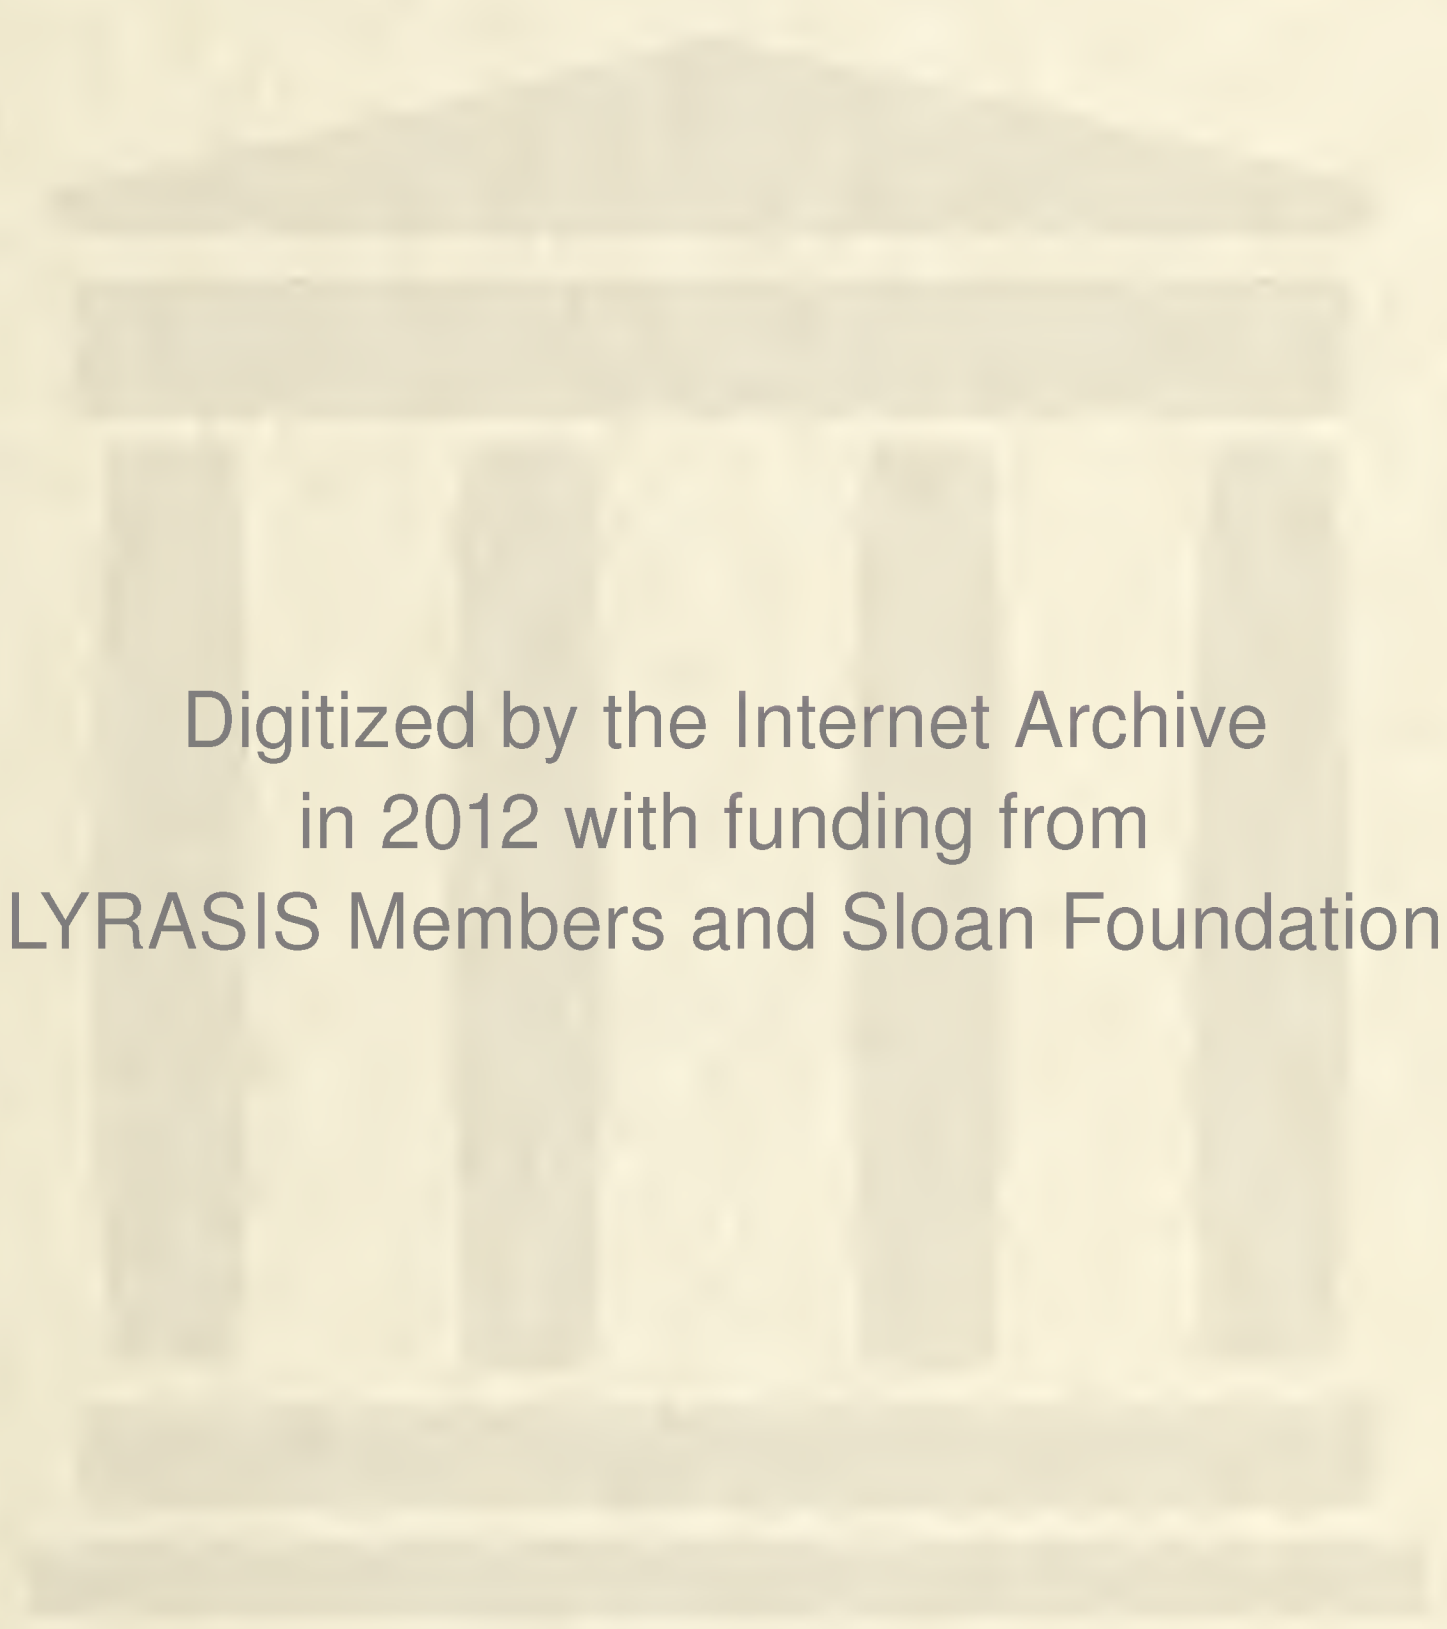

The empty canvas has been filled, the clay molded, and the brass bent into shape. Perfection, nothing more, nothing less. Beauty is in the eye of the beholder and the masterpiece has nothing to gain or lose; to hide behind or boast about. The Final Masterpiece is the graduate who, after four years of scratching and painting, has become a magnificent work of art. The 1993 Regina Maris presents: The Final Masterpiece.

WE BEGAN

Our College Careers On An Empty Canvas. Our Lives Just Waiting To Be Painted. We Made New Friends And Took Classes That Began To Sketch The Very Outline Of Our Existence And Being.

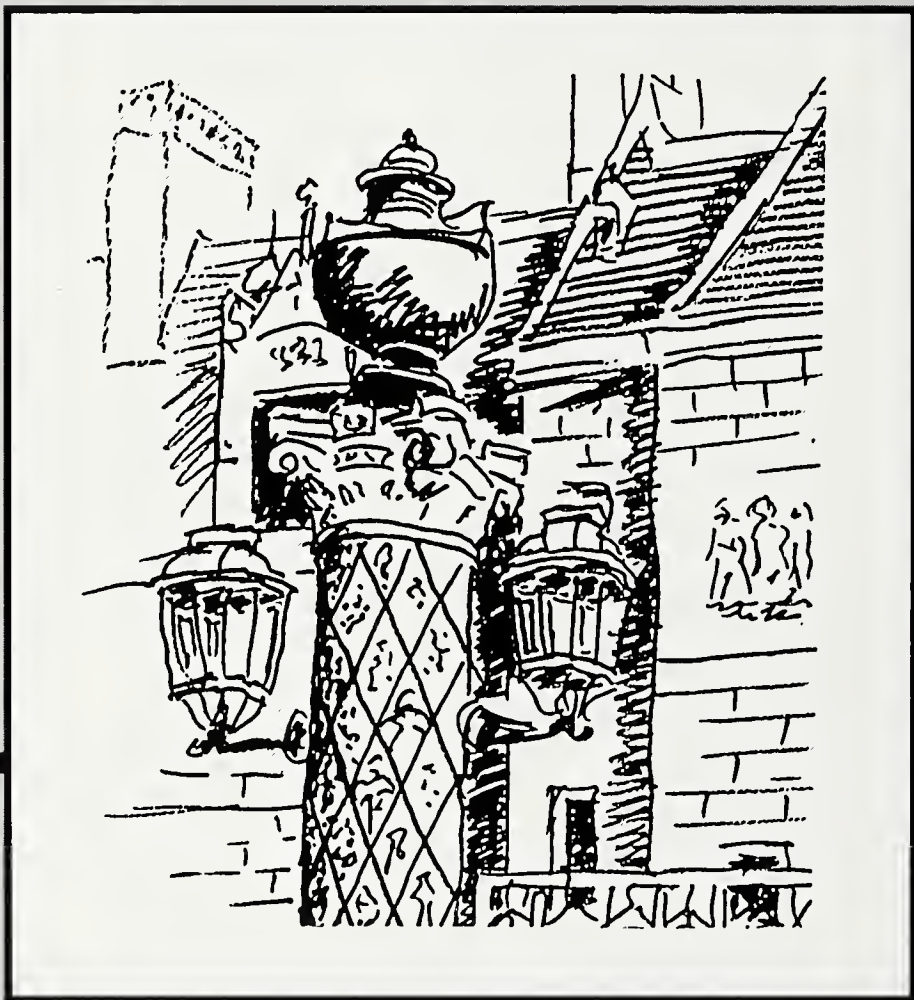

WE BECAME

MORE EXPERIENCED IN DEVELOPING NEW FRIENDSHIPS, CULTIVATING RELATIONSHIPS, AND GATHERING KNOWLEDGE. OUR FRIENDS, TEACHERS, ADVISORS, COACHES, AND DIRECTORS SHED THE MANY DIFFERENT COLORS OF INDIVIDUAL LIVES GIVING DEFINITE PROPORTIONS TO THE PICTURE. SOME ROUGH, OTHERS SMOOTH YET EACH COMPLIMENTING THE OTHER.

AS GRADUATING SENIORS . . .

WE WILL LEAVE SALVE HAVING PAINTED A MASTERPIECE IN OURSELVES. YET, THIS WORK OF
ART IS UNFINISHED. THE REST OF
OUR LIVES HAVE COLORS WE'VE NEVER SEEN AND TEXTURES WE'VE NEVER FELT. UNTIL THE SKETCHES OF OUR LIVES BEGIN TO FORM THE
NEXT MASTERPIECE REMAINS
HIDDEN IN OUR FUTURES.

The Final Masterpiece

A place we can call home
Memories to treasure all our own

The broken sketch no more
We are the masterpiece, a creation that leaves much in store

A work of art that will forever hang in the minds and hearts
Of all who sketched, sculpted, colored and banged

The masterpiece

Ode To A Senior

Yyess! A Senior Finally. I'm Not A Confused And Fumbling Freshman. I'm Not A Stressed Out Sophomore Looking For That Perfect Major. I'm Not A Junior Running To Internships And Turning 21. I'm A Senior And I Have Absolutely Nothing In The World To Worry About Except

Wait A Minute!

I Thought Today Was October 16th? It's April 16th?

Four More Weeks Till Graduation?

Isn't There One More Class I Have To Take? I Was Sure I Had One More Credit Of Art History Or Was It Basket Weaving? Maybe I Can Take A Couple Grad-Courses Over The Summer. What Am I Going To Do With My Life Anyway? Oh, God What Did I Do With That Packet Career Services Sent Me? I Can't Believe I'm Actually Saying This But I Wish I Was A Freshman. The Real World Can Wait. I Wan't To Do This College Thing Again.

Congratulations! Today is your day.
Your off to great places!
Your off and away!

You have brains in your head.
You have feet in your shoes.
You can steer yourself
any direction you choose.

You're on your own. And you know what you know.
And YOU are the guy who'll decide where to go.

You'll look up and down streets. Look
'em over with care.
About some you will say," I don't choose to go there."

With your head full of brains and your shoes full of feet, you're too smart to go down any Not-so-good- street.

And you may not find any you'll want to go down.
In that case, of course,
you'll head straight out of town.

It's opener there in the wide open air.

Out there things can happen and frequently do to people as brainy
and footsy as you.

And when things start to happen
don't worry. Don't stew.

Just go right along.
You'll start happening too.

OH! THE PLACES YOU'LL GO!

—Dr. Seuss

The Work in Progress

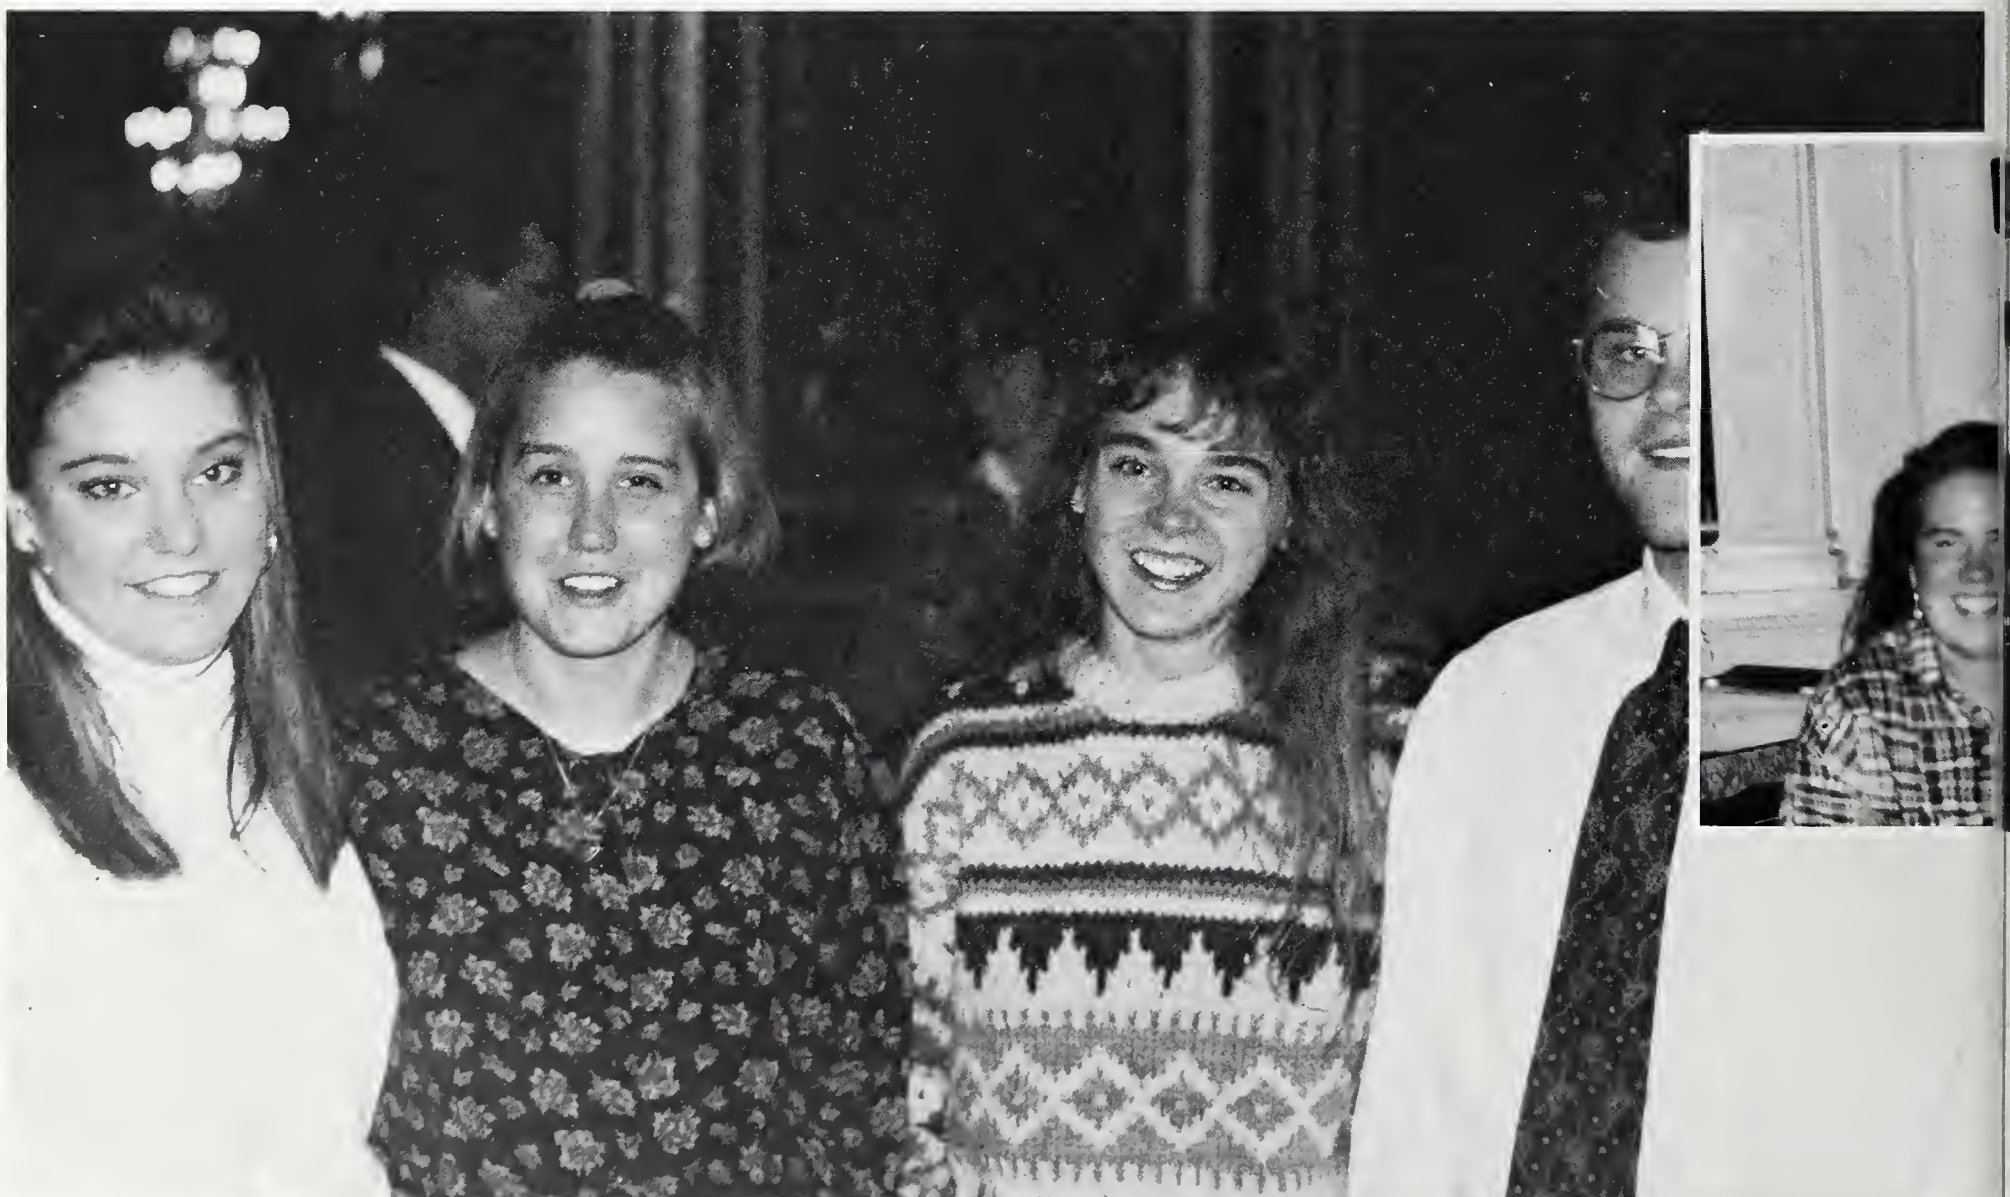

A masterpiece we can only grasp
Years ahead and yet years in the past

Faint sketches of what the future might bring
We wait only for the spring

Brush strokes back and forth

Colors that in time
Will teach the poet to rhyme

And the student to learn
Lessons that will last a lifetime

The empty canvas
The faint sketch
Can only grow with color
Color brings life to the flat, dull sketch
Inviting us to live in its landscapes
And kiss its portraits
So dig in and grab some paint,
There are so many colors to choose from
But don't use too many Too many colors make a mess of a masterpiece

Sigma Phi Sigma headed by executive officers Melissa White, Michaela Marcotte (president), Kim Grimaldi, Kelly Thompson, Michael Staff, Teresa Busher, Caitlin Lacroy, and Laurie McGloin had a successful year. A strong supporter of community and school involvement, Sigma gave support to such events as Feed a Friend, the annual Alumni Phonathons, the Governor's Ball, the New Year's Eve Ball, Family Weekend, and Graduation. Sigma was also very involved with the Martin Luther King Center in Newport promoting on-Campus events such as the Easter Egg Hunt, Thanksgiving Dinner and the Christmas Tree Lighting. These events invited the underprivileged children of Newport to enjoy the generosity of the Salve Regina University Community as Salve students learned the value of service to others. Sigma Phi Sigma looks forward to another busy but exciting year. Sigma Phi Sigma is an Honor Society dedicated to scholarship, fidelity, and service. All members must be nominated by a faculty or staff member, have obtained at least a 3.0, and demonstrated the ideals of the organization. Sister Therese Antone acts as staff advisor to the Honor Society.

The Accounting Club, under the direction of Mrs. L. Robidoux, planned and organized several guest speakers in the field as well as career seminars. The Club, attracted numerous majors and non-majors, as frequent meetings and activities were planned. If you are interested in joining, see Mrs. Robidoux or Dr. O'Brien.

The Management Club had dedicated core of members this year. The club met monthly to discuss topics in Management, offered guest speakers for interested majors and non-majors, and planned frequent activities for club members. Local businesses hosted informational workshops and upperclassmen seized several opportunities for internships and career options after Graduation.

The Artists Guild, under the direction of Brother Ralf, in the Art Department, offers young artists, of all disciplines, the opportunity to share their work and ideas with their peers. The Guild helps in organizing exhibits in the McKillop Gallery, plans cultural trips to Boston Providence and beyond, and meets monthly to discuss issues in the field. If you are interested in joining the Guild speak to Brother Ralf in the Art Department.

The Housing Senate, under the direction of President Chris Reilly and Adviser Frank Montecalvo addressed and solved many residential problems on Campus. The Senate also planned special dorm and on-Campus events throughout the year. The Senate meets byweekly to discuss residential problems reported through dorm senate representatives. Issues include; Miley Cafe, Dorm Maintenance, informational health and safety regulations, dorm activities, and other housing concerns.

Campus Ministry, under the direction of Diane Comerford, Dean of Campus Ministry and Campus Ministry Secretary Lorraine Raposa offered various liturgies throughout the year involving student groups in planning and presenting the masses. Groups such as the Student Life Senate, Sigma Phi Sigma, the Student Housing Senate, as well as academic clubs interested in participating offered masses throughout the year. Campus Ministry also calls upon students to be Eucharistic, Music, and Lectern Ministers.

The Academic Senate, under the direction of Brother Daszkiewicz, Assistant Dean of Faculty, addressed issues of academic importance as senators from each academic area drafted proposals to be passed through the senate. Senators are chosen by each department chair on the basis of academic performance, leadership in the department, and character. Recent proposals passed include: monitors for the library during finals and mid-terms, an extension of library hours on weekends, and a stricter attendance policy for academic senate members.

The French Club, a small organization, advised by the French faculty organized frequent filmshowings and cultural events for interested students. The group is open to non-majors as well as majors.

The Yearbook, a student run organization was successful this year, under the advisement of Gerry Willis Assistant Dean and Director of Activities, and the leadership of Co-Editors Eileen Katis and Jill Fabian the book survived budget cuts and debts recording record book sales. The book also features the artwork of Armond LaMontagne a talented sculptor and painter from Siduate, R.I. Jill Fabian will continue next year as Editor-in-Chief. Special thanks to Sarah Burkwitt, Underclassmen Editor and Vern Carveaile Business Editor. Also thanks to Mike Schnabel, Steve Kelleher, and Michelle Ercoli for their photography contributions.

The S.N.O. otherwise known as S.N.O. provides a space for interested Nursing majors to discuss current topics in the field as well as plan career options for upperclassmen. The organization also fosters community involvement as members participate in clinical programs in Newport and greater Rhode Island.

The Philosophy Club headed by Dr. Hersh and Dr. Luzitano had a productive and hectic year. President of the club, Carolynne Dankos, along with advisors planned trips to Boston and Providence where club members attended conferences and workshops that introduced new and old Philosophical agendas. The club also met to share ideas and thoughts on the subject. Whether it be in formal conference or in informal discussion, the Philosophy Club offers students of all interests and backgrounds and opportunity to share their minds and their thoughts.

The Administration of Justice Club under the advisement of Dr. Hoffman involved ADJ majors as well as interested students in monthly meetings introducing various guest speakers in the field. Speakers included Michael Allen, a Middletown Dare Officer. Allen introduced the club to the Dare Program and next year the club hopes to continue and strengthen its involvement with the program. Members involved themselves with the Dare road race this year and hope to make the race an annual affair. Another exciting speaker was Theresa Murray, a Salve Graduate from the Administration of Justice program. Murray, is a Drug Enforcement Administration officer, shared her experiences in the force and her career choice in the field. The club looks forward to another productive and exciting year.

The Council for Exceptional Children (CEC) organized by the Special Education department hosts numerous recreational and educational events for needy children and adults on Aquidneck Island. Events included the famous Mardi Gras, A Crafts Fair and Brunch, and many other recreational activities. CEC benefits both the students and the community in that students gain some field experience while special children and adults receive the attention and assistance they need and deserve. Involved members include: Gina Mennett, Denise Young, Melissa Sotack, and Jennifer Salina. The group invites all interested students to participate.

The University choirs, under the direction of Brother James, sung their way through another exciting year at Salve Regina University. As in the past, the choirs have participated in joint concerts with other Universities as well as hosted special concerts, competitions, and workshops.

This year, the choirs participated in a joint concert with the Portsmouth Community choir in singing Handel's Messiah. The choirs also traveled to St. Anselms College in New Hampshire and hosted Manhattan College in a joint concert this spring.

This year, there was an addition to the numerous choirs that exist on campus. The Ocean Boys, an all-male acapella choir, rocked the annual Christmas concert with their rendition of Jingle Bells. The Sea Gals, an all female acapella choir was also made a debut. Other performing choirs include Concert choir and Madrigals.

The Salve Regina University Theatre Department has just completed its 12th year. During the 1992-93 season, The Shadow Box by Michael Cristofer, produced in the fall, was a drama in two acts about life and death. The director, Dr. Raymond Picozzi, stated about the play, "The people you are about to meet in The Shadow Box will at first seem to be burdened with overwhelming anxiety about the worries and troubles of sickness and death but as you journey with them that beautiful, subtle all powerful spirit of human determination enters in and penetrates all with the wondrous eternal joy of love and hope."

Once Upon A Mattress, a musical comedy also touched the audience through the power of laughter as melodious voices transported the audience back into the 15th century. The characters such as Prince Dauntless and Princess Winnifred kept each audience member entertained. This performance marked the debut of many students, and under careful direction from Dr. Bernard G. Masterson, the Department's Chair, the show was a success.

Another year, another yearbook. Under the leadership of Jerry Willis, Assistant Dean of Students, Director of Activities and Editors Eileen Katis and Jill Fabian, the 1993 Regina Maris was a smashing success! Although the year got off to a bumpy start with budget cuts and debts, record book sales, smart advertising, and some economizing brought an almost sunken ship afloat. As Gerry once said, "I'm just here to make sure the boat stays afloat. It's up to you guys to steer it in the right direction and keep it running."

Other contributors, and sometimes life savers, were Sophomores Sarah Burkwitt, Underclassmen Editor, and Terry Carvealle, Business Editor. Special thanks go to Senior portrait photographers Todd Margolis, John Corbet, and Armor, Sports Information Director Ed Habershaw, and the activities office. Thank-you all for putting up with us. Your support and enthusiasm has been invaluable to the book.

Extra special thanks go to Todd Margolis who spent much of his precious time running around Salve taking pictures of everyone and everything. We love you Todd! Extra-Extra thanks go to Gerry Willis. Thank-you for being there when we needed to let off steam. When everything seemed up-side down you turned it right-side up.

Will never forget

The Yearbook conference when Vern, Sarah, and Eileen got stuck at some pizza place in Providence at 2:00 in the morning with absolutely no place to stay and too much pizza.

Jill and her extremely complex love life

Jill, "I have one question"

The day Jill and Eileen decided to crop their heads and photocopy their hands.

The feeling of literally being trapped in Wakehurst for an entire Weekend.

Security and their utter cooperation in letting us in and out of Wakehurst, You know what I mean Vern? I know Jill knows what I mean.

Everyone on the face of the earth asking Eileen. "So how many pages of the yearbook do you have left?" Or the most famous, "Aren't you finished yet?"

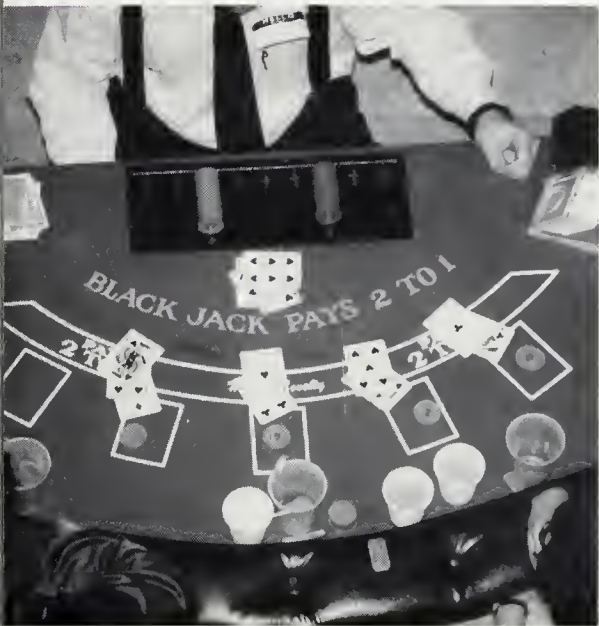

The day Eileen initiated Jill Fabian as her yearbook slave

Jill: "Eileen I really think I'm going to have to kill you"

Jill, Eileen, Eileen and Jill, Jill and Eileen

1993 was a great year for the Student Life Senate. Under the leadership of Advisors Dave Deblois, Gerry Willis, and Senate President Kathy Lombard, events were thoroughly planned and executed inviting the Salve community to a great year. Some traditional events such as Oktoberfest and Spring Weekend brought a new spirit and vitality to campus life as turnouts and profits were higher than ever. Yet, new and exciting events such as Spring Week and Family weekend introduced new themes and events for students, staff, and families to enjoy. Highlights include: the dunking booth at welcome back weekend, velcro-jumping at Oktoberfest, and Bungy-jumping during Spring Week. Thanks to hard workers, Gina Mennett, Sarah Burkwitt, and Denise Young the dances were a great success this year. Turnouts were higher than ever. We also cannot forget Brooke Farrington and Kelly Tompson for their efforts with Spring Week. The student senate holds by-weekly meetings in the basement of Miley. All are welcome to come and voice their opinion. If you are interested in running for office or just volunteering see Dave Deblois in Activities or Gerry Willis in Wakehurst.

Pep Rally/Welcome

Try to remember that days of September when life was mellow and oh so yellow . . . Ah . . . Autumn! School's back with late nights, binge runs to 7-Eleven, and great kick-off parties. Welcome back cookout, sponsored by Activities, was a great fall event. Miley supplied the food, Activities supplied the music, and there was enough volleyball for everyone. The Pep-rally, another big fall event, officially started the first Football season in Salve history. The football studs showed their muscle, Coach Coen spoke words of wisdom, and everyone got Salve footballs. The dunking booth was also a big hit.

Octoberfest

A weekend of fun for everyone! A cookout with Five Gone Mad on the boathouse lawn kicked the last football weekend of the season into play. Activities sponsored velcro jumping and a pie eating contest. Rich Cooper won the pie eating contest with Gerry Willis; a close second. To end the weekend the Seahawks were victorious! Another added feature was the debut of Salve's first pep band.

O'Hare With A Beer In Your Hand

It all began as I sat here to pee
 Of what the story was of the class of 1993.
 We smoke a lot of cigs and drank a lot of beer
 And that is how we made it from first to senior year.
 From package store to package store we would roam
 And O'Brien's is what we called home.
 We never would of made it without these places
 Which provided us with stiff shots and lots of cases.
 Students by day, drunks by night
 In the afternoons we were high as kites.
 Library trips were made once a year
 And the computer lab made us chringe in fear.
 How did we make it from first to senior year?
 God only knows!
 Our grades went to hell as our tolerance rose.
 Are you wondering who wrote this poem
 We are the drunkest onces here and we probably have a test Tomorrow.
 But are we studying? - Hell no!
 This is how we made it and now it is time to go
 Looking for a job is surely going to blow.
 Because all we really learned is how to party
 By drinking beer and wine and maybe some Baccardi.
 Happy Graduation Class of 1993!!!

Here I am peeing again
 With my trusty black felt tip pen.
 We are all getting lit and very dumb
 And whats left of our brain is starting to numb.
 But we will not leave for O'Brien's is our place
 Monday through Sunday you will see our face.
 No diploma nor job will make us leave
 Because all we would do is sob and grieve.
 Because the point of education is not what we learn but the Badge of drinking ability you were able to earn.
 So incoming freshman heed my word
 Put down your books, don't be a nerd,
 So come to O'Brien's the best of bars.
 Head down Thames Street and turn to O'Brien's
 Order a pitcher and toss over your keys
 For when you come to this place you will leave a happy but wasted sight.

O'BRIEN'S
 PUB

Who ever said driving was easy? Well, certainly not in Newport. Between jammed parking lots, one ways, and stop signs driving can become hazardous to your mental and physical health. First things first! Newport was not designed for cars and who would have thought, in the 1700's to build wider roads and less narrow winding oneway traps. So, what do we do? Plant stop signs every fifty feet creating even more traffic jams! Please tell me that there is some logic involved in all of this mess. Another wonderful experience for native Newporters and Salve students is parking the car. Who hasn't seen a parking ticket in their years at Salve? It's almost impossible not to get a ticket. Even Newport residents find themselves in municipal court for parking across the street from their own house! The infamous Newport parking sticker seems to be the only way out. Yet, Newporters still find themselves struggling to find a parking space that doesn't cost at least 10 dollars an hour.

So, after driving around for a 1/2 hour on a jammed one-way, most likely Thames, you begin your never-ending search for the pay-free, ticket proof, parking spot. If you manage this in less than an hour you've been cheating or you know someone with a long driveway. Last but not least, Almacs. Need I say more? Do people shut off their brains before entering this parking area or am I crazy? By the time I find a parking spot, I'm so aggravated that even entering a grocery shop is the farthest thing from my mind. And what is the deal with the Validation? Half the people who park at Almacs don't even bother to go shopping. All in all, Newport is not the place to drive or even own a car. I suggest buying a bike or just walking it because Newport isn't getting any smaller.

Santos

You are getting very, very sleepy. Frank Santos, the X-rated hypnotist, came once again to entertain, to shock, and to basically provide a great time for the Salve community. Although volunteers for the hypnosis would not show their faces the next day, the event proved to be a great experience for all involved.

Leadership Conference

The weather was beautiful, the food was great, and Gerry's whistle blow pops were awesome. Salve's leaders met, once again, at Connelly Hall, for a three day conference. Activities included; workshops, brainstorming, and presentations from such organizations as Big Brother Big Sister Program, World Scholar-Athlete Games and other volunteer organizations in the area. Yet, such hobbies as chronic chinese fire drills in traffic and watergun fights should be avoided.

Ch- Ch- Ch- Change

In the past year Salve Regina University has witnessed many changes in curriculum, student life, staff, faculty, facilities, and sports. As a result we cheered on a new football team this year. We also began a program in field hockey which will be varsity next year. A new fitness center in the basement of Miley was built so our trips to the YMCA were eliminated. New majors and graduate classes have been added as well as a new MacIntosh Lab.

Next year students on campus will enjoy a newly renovated Miley cafeteria with a new exciting and delicious food program. John Rok was promoted from Dean of Students to Vice President of Student Affairs, John Quinn moved up from Assistant Dean of Students to Dean of Students. Lisa Steimer also joined the crew as Assistant Dean filling John Quinn's old position as well as continuing with residence.

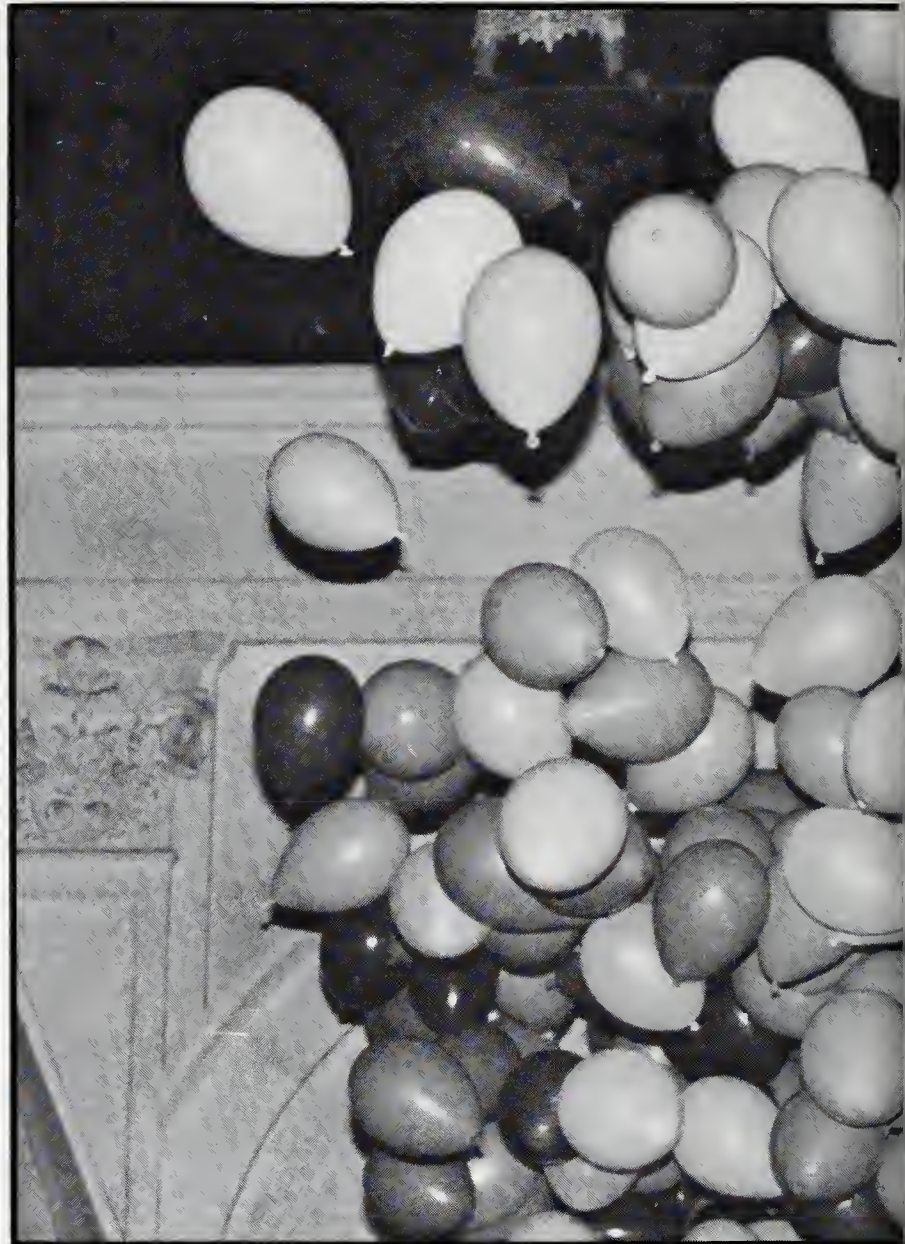

Ed Habershaw took on the position of Sports Information Director publishing weekly updates on season records and MVPs. We also lost the dynamic Sister Sheila Megley who served Salve as its Provost. Some other fun changes included a strange looking set of sculptures that now inhabit the front lawn of the McKillop Library. The list is long and the changes many. We are a growing community and to see such positive changes is sign of good things to come. Some previews for next year. There will be a new computer lab installed in room 106 as of next fall. The lab is designed for the graduate student population but will be available to the whole student body. An AIDS seminar is scheduled for sometime first semester. This workshop will allow students to voice there opinion on the subject as well as ask any questions they might have. The athletic offices will also be moving to Ruggles Avenue. Student Life Senate is also working hard to start a schoolwide, student run newspaper this fall.

New Year's Semi

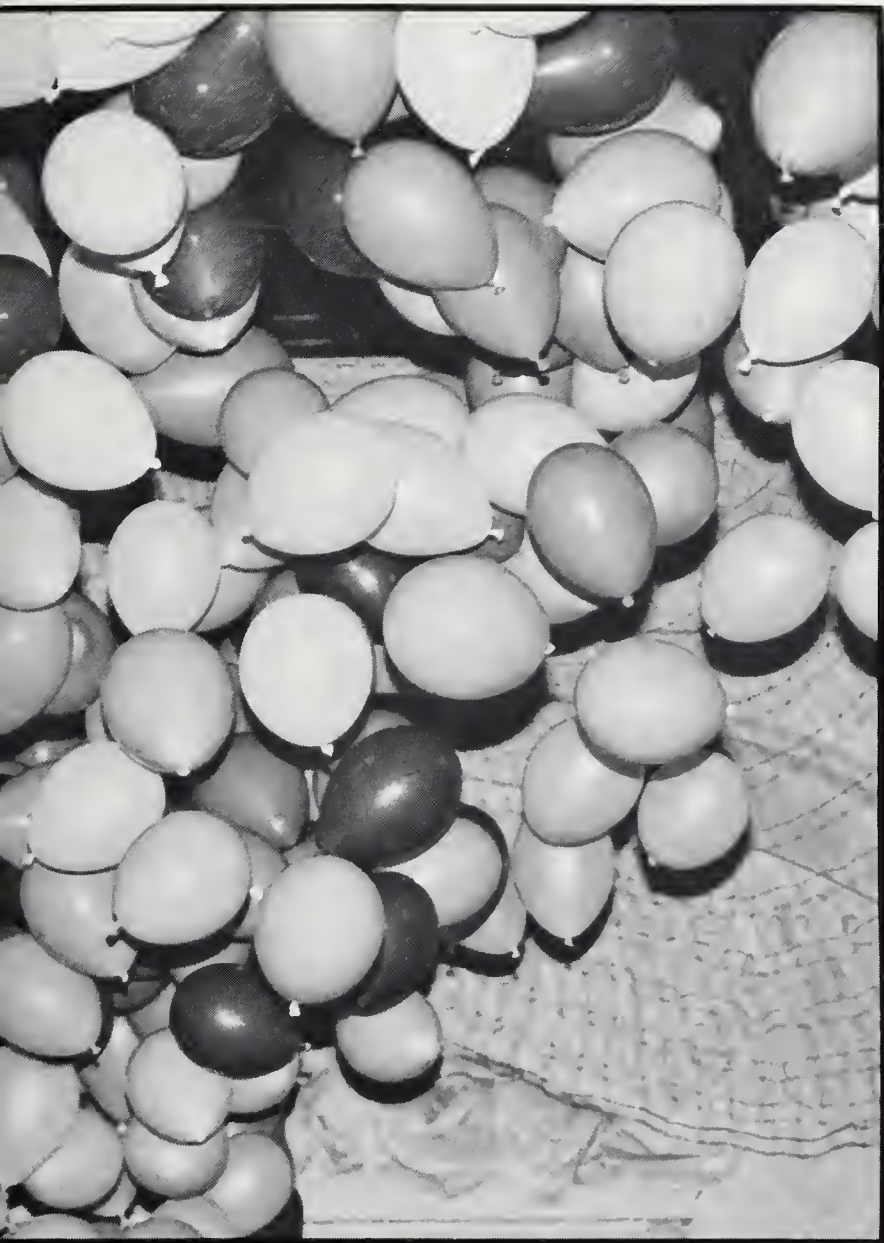

It's just another New Year's Eve and Salve certainly celebrated. With its biggest turnout ever the ball was a success! Sophomore Sarah Burkwitt and Junior Denise Young planned the event with finesse and style. The ball has always been a big event for Life Senate and as expected everything from the food to the music gave Salve a night to remember.

Casino Night

The deck is cut and the dealers are ready. You roll the dice and the dealer places the chips on your lucky number. Come on lucky seven Yes! You feel its going to be a good night at the casino. Salve initiated a new yearly tradition last March. The very first Casino Night was planned. The event won the hearts of the students as well as the community. This year spurred an even bigger student turnout but less Newporters because of stormy weather. Salve students found themselves dealing hands of BlackJack and Pocker or spinning wheels of fortune and diaster. The Jazz band contributed a few hours of music and selected students sang jazz tunes. Life Senate raised a little over $1,000 in support for the Boy's and Girl's Club of Rhode Island and The Newport Boy's and Girl's Club.

Spring Weekend

1993 marked the first Spring Week elongating activities from Wednesday through Sunday. In past years, activities had only lasted the weekend, yet Life Senate began a tradition that will now offer a full five day extravaganza. Activities included an outdoor movie in back of McCalley on Wednesday, Karaoke at Cobblestones on Thursday, a cookout on Friday, the Spring Fling Saturday night, ending with bungee jumping, Battle of the Bands, and a cookout in back of Ochre Court on Sunday. It was definitely a week to remember.

Senior Auction

Going once, going twice, sold. Do I hear higher? The Senior Auction, held annually to raise funds for the Senior Class, claimed, bought, and sold like crazy. With announcers like Father Ray and bidders like Best Bisailon, the event was a screaming riot. Thanks to the city of Newport and the faculty and staff of Salve, items up for bid included dinners for two at Newports finest, special favors from faculty and staff as well as clothing, food, and sporting goods. Special thanks also to Senior Class officers, Mike Schnabel, Kathy Lombard, Kim Grimaldi, and Colleen Gleeson. Without their efforts this event would not have taken place. Thanks also to Sarah Murphy and Steve Kelleher for their efforts to help with the event.

Family Weekend

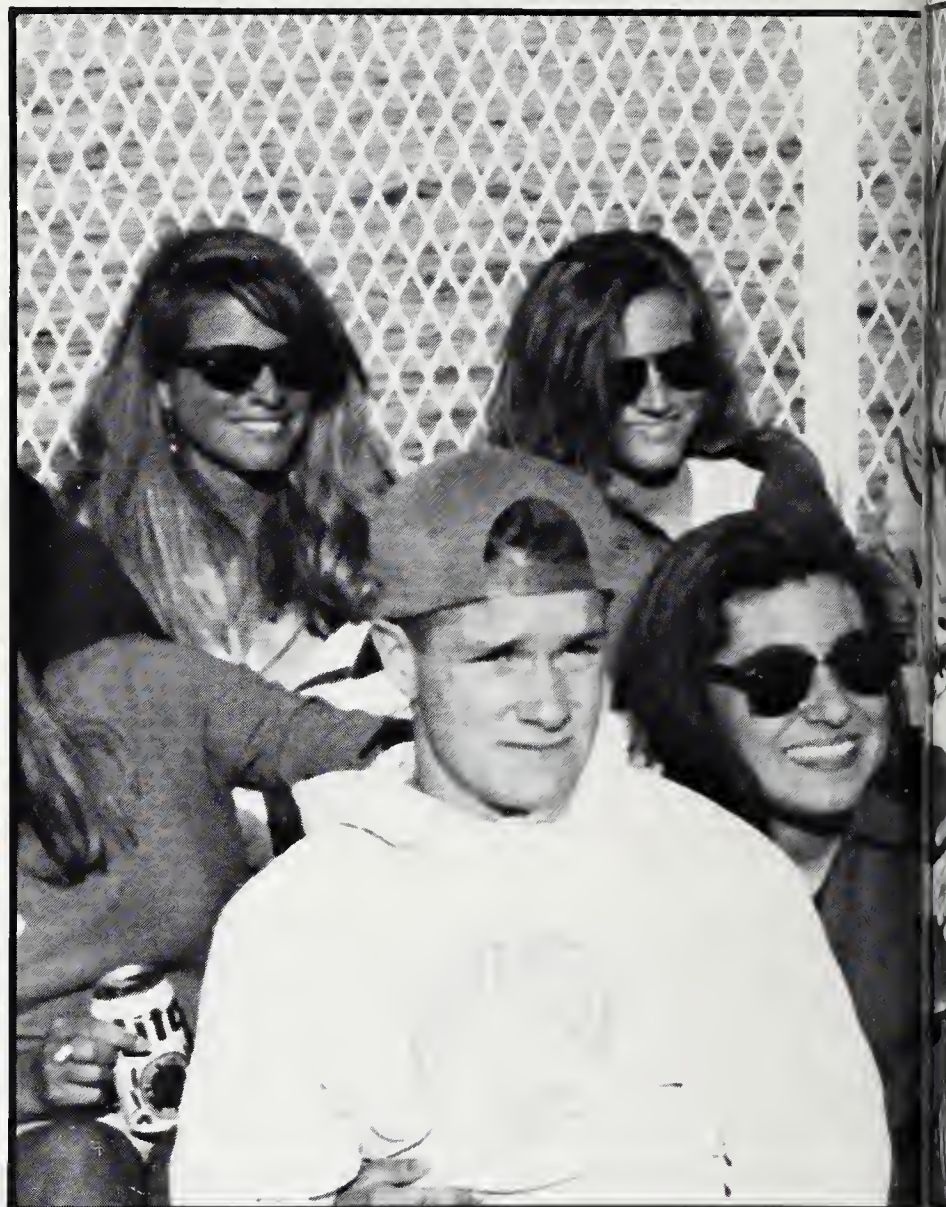

Let's here it for family! April 23rd and 24th marked the 1st annual Family weekend sponsored by Activities and Alumni Relations. The weekend, in past years, was called Parents Weekend. Yet, this year Salve decided to invite the whole family to come and celebrate. The weekend began with an instrumental concert Friday night, and continued on Saturday with The Honors convocation, a double-hitter for Salve Baseball, and a good ol' fashioned western BBQ at Wakehurst sponsored by Seilers. Activities continued through Saturday night with a very successful family dance equipped with a cash bar and live band. Brunch with the President, at the Marriot, closed the weekend Sunday morning.

Senior Boat Cruise

Drink till you sink" was the motto of this year's Senior Boat Cruise. And drink they did. The weather was great making up for the rainout on the fall boat cruise. Although a couple die-hards felt that rain or shine they would party. The boat almost did sink because seniors swarmed the boat tossing beer after beer down the hatch with the "I could care less about my finals attitude" and the "I already passed in my thesis so who cares" excuse. Either way, the boat cruise was a raving success and the Class of 1993 finally succeeded in getting themselves completely wasted.

S t a f f

Behind every desk and telephone, heading committees and advising students, solving problems and encouraging, planning dances and healing the common cold, is the every ready and dedicated staff of Salve Regina University. Thank-you for your time, patience, and dedication.

Special thanks to all staff, faculty, and Administration for seeing us through these trying years. Your constant support and enthusiasm is what makes Salve the place we what to be. From rearranging schedules and classes, declaring majors and graduating, to teaching Intro to Psychology you are the backbone of this University. Not only are you our mentors, teachers, advisors, and administrators you are our friends and the family we have found here will always remain close to our hearts. Remember this: You can make a difference. You are the shapers of the future.

Year In Review

The year? In 10 words or less? Not possible. Well since I have the time and space, I guess I could squeeze out a couple more words. Let's see . . . Hurricane Andrew hit, Bush lost, Ross Perot ran, dropped out, then ran again. Tipper Gore is hideous; Hillary Clinton is no Cindy Crawford. Over 9.7 million Americans are out of work, Larry Bird retired after 13 years, and the beating of one black man set off three days of rioting in Los Angeles. Barcelona, Spain hosted the 1992 Summer Olympic Games, and Clinton became the 42nd president of the United States.

1992 was definitely a year of change in Washington. Women jumped into the scene grabbing positions in the Senate and House of Representatives. Democratic politicians came forward and claimed their rightful place. Congress will now sport a democratic majority. Clinton campaigned hard and holds the flag for the Democrats after 12 years of Republican reign. America will see many dramatic changes in the year 1993. We can only hope that Clinton will pull us out of this economic rut we fell into during the Reagan presidency. Shown above, Clinton and Gore raise their arms in victory at the Democratic Convention in New York last July. (center right) President Bush speaks at the Republican Convention in Houston. During the campaign, Bush sought to impress that he, "was the agent of change and Clinton was slick and unreliable," says the Associated Press. (Bottom right)- Perot explains the situation. This witty business man who made his first million when his company began selling stock, told America how it really was and what had to be done. Due to Perot's drop from the race in July and his miraculous re-entry five weeks before election day, the public became unsure but remained supportive. Perot did not receive the electoral vote but he undoubtedly earned the vote of the people.

“... And the World can be a better place ... for you and me ... you just wait and see ...”

(Bottom left) Since 1989 our economy has taken a turn for the worse. Jobs are scarce and every day millions are out looking for jobs that don't exist. The unemployment rate has risen from 5.2 percent, when President Bush took office in 1988, to over 7 percent on Election day 1992. Nine point seven million Americans are out of work and according to the Labor Department projections, there will be 30 percent more college graduates than college level jobs from now until the year 2005.

(Top right) Hurricane Andrew, the most expensive natural disaster ever to hit this country, certainly didn't forget to stop by the Bahamas, South Florida, and Louisiana as the 54 hour rampage left 180,000 homeless in Florida alone. Tens of thousands of people tried to evacuate the Miami area while thousands more rode out the storm in shelters and boarded up homes. Fifty-one deaths were recorded and damage was estimated at $20 billion.

(Center page) The third bomb of disaster to hit the United States was the three day riot scene in Los Angeles that left 52 dead, 2,383 injured, and 18,507 arrested. Property damage was estimated at $785 million. Oddly enough, the rioting began when four, white Police officers were found innocent after beating Rodney King, a black man, who was stopped for a road violation on a Los Angeles freeway.

Year In Review

On the sports side, the year produced many surprising and dramatic results. The United States earned a total of 108 medals while the Games recorded a total of 10,000 athletes from 183 countries. Basketball legend, Larry Bird retiring from the Boston Celtics after a 13 year career, said "When I played, I played as hard as I could, that's what I want to be remembered for."

(Top right) United States diver, Mary Ellen Clark wins the bronze from the 10 meter platform. (above) Clark Lewis may not make it to the next Olympics, says the Associated Press. Lewis won two Gold medals; one in the long jump and the other in the 400-meter relay. He hopes to participate in the 1996 Olympics. (bottom right) 35 year-old Bird known for his brilliant passing, pinpoint shooting and rebounding will retire after 13 years. The Celtic player has been plagued with back problems for the last two seasons of his career.

"Warm it up" cause life is just a highway covered in "Blood Sugar Sex Magik". A few of the new pop artists of 1992/93 include: the rapping 13 year-olds Kris Smith and Kris Kelly (bottom left) whose trademark, cross-dressing, is displayed on their new album entitled "Totally Krossed out". The album depicts the two teenagers wearing their clothes backward, labels out. Tom Cochrane, (above) a pop singer, hit the charts with his single "Life is a Highway", and the Funky Red Hot Chili Peppers who, in their new album "Blood Sugar Sex Magik", played "Whatever came out," says drummer Chad Smith. Other rising stars of the year include: Country singer Billy ray Cyrus, En Vogue, Ice-T, and Venessa Williams.

Football

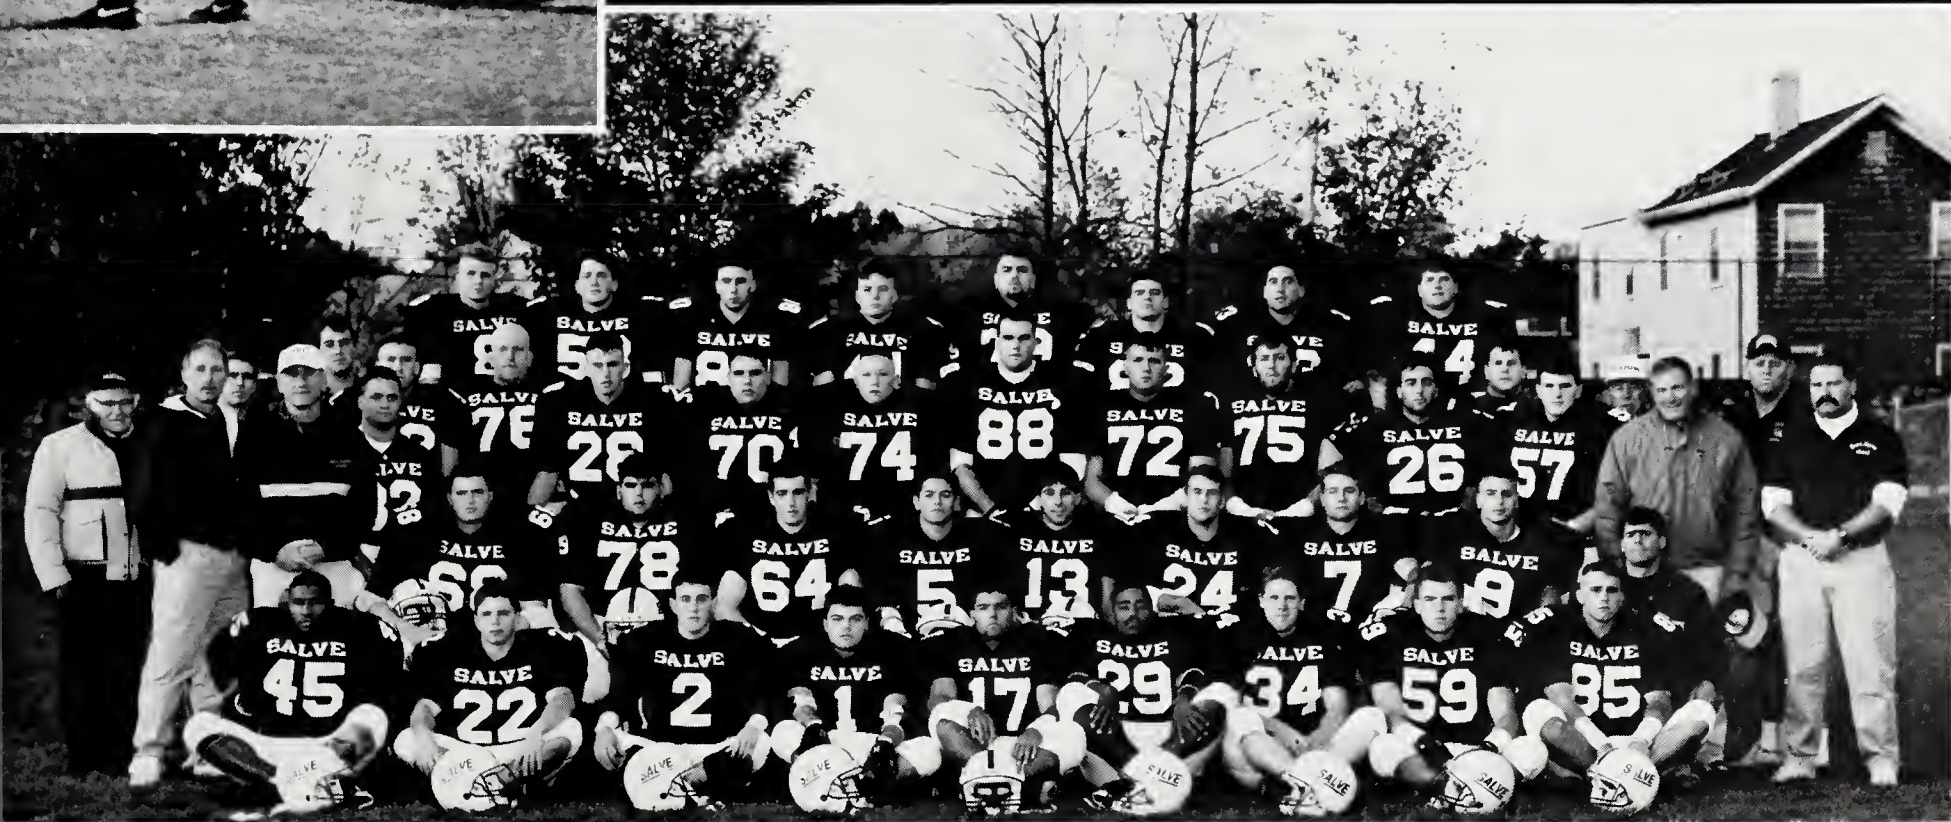

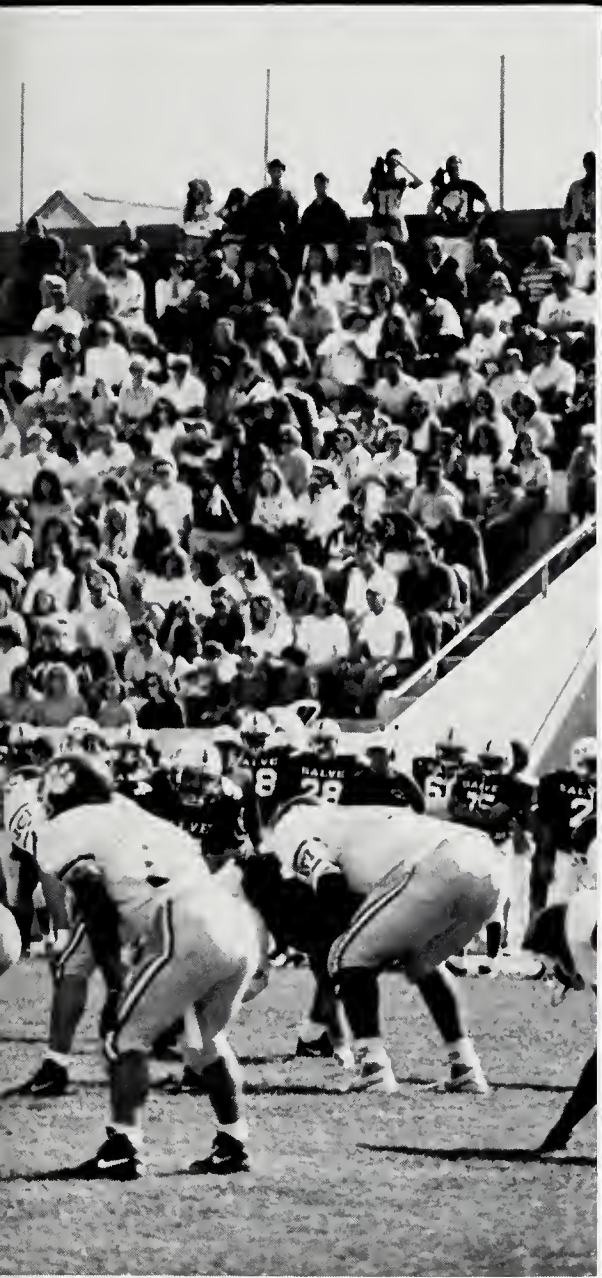

Lets here it for Football! Salve finished its first season with an outstanding record of 4 wins and 2 losses. The team had a 1-2 record until the last three games of the season. Top scorer Heath Burrell scored five touchdowns in the last two games boosting Salve's season record. Salve was undefended at home and plans on an even better season next year. MVP went to Heath Burrell, who scored a total of 42 points, MVOP (Most valuable offensive player) went to Justin Hackley and Matt DelGiorno, and MVDP (Most valuable defense player) went to Tim Sherman and Jamie Naszimento.

Men's Soccer

After a long season, men's soccer finished with 11 wins and 9 losses. Coach Keith Cory and Asst. Coach John Tomlinson must have been proud of Salve placing 2nd in the Commonwealth Coastal Conference finals after an overtime loss to Gordon College. Top scorers were (Sr.) Josh Keller (18), (So.) Joe Clemens (14), and (Sr.) Brian Mead (8). Clemens became the second player in Salve history to record 20 point seasons back to back.

Women's Soccer

Under the leadership of Coach George Denny Women's Soccer kicked their way to their first winning season ever. With a 9-6-1 record, the team finished second in the Coastal Commonwealth Conference. Captains, Senior Christine Sullivan and Junior Katie Burke, kept the team's spirit high through a season of many injuries. The out-look for next year is great. Coach Denny foresees another winning season and a first place finish in the Conference.

Cross Country

With leading runners Michelle Fobert and Lisa Kelly, the team finished top 10 in 6 out of 10 races winning the Regis College Invitational. Coach Mick Klitzner couldn't say enough about former basketball star Michelle Fobert. In the first week of the season Fobert claimed, "I thought I'd give Cross-Country a shot". Since then, Fobert has become, in Klitzner's eye's, the most accomplished Cross-Country performer since Eloise Evans, who in the mid-1980's, became a four time All-American at Salve.

Equestrian Team

The Equestrian Team had an other great season of jumping and showing. The Team pranced along under the leadership of Suzanne Duffy. For the 1992-1993 Equestrian season Freshman Nicole Hoekenga was named Reserve High Point Rider in Region One. Nicole also received All Region Honors in the Open Jumping and Flats Division. Senior Kristina Hughes received All Region Honors in the Walk Trot Division. Suzanne Duffy looks forward to a competitive and successful 1994 season.

Men's Basketball

Salve's men played some sweet hoop this season finishing with a 13-13 over all record. They ended the year as the runner up in the Commonwealth Coast Conference. Two of Salve's hoopsters, Junior Ray Jansen and Sophomore Scott Kopecky, were named to the Second Team All-Conference team. Scott also entered the record books with 426 single season points and 55 single season 3-pointers.

After a challenging season the Salve Women's Basketball team still managed to advance to the semifinals of the Commonwealth Coastal Conference. Tri-captains Dina Campea, Robin Ramey and Minique Suttles kept the team spirit high although the year end record was a disappointing 8-15. Commonwealth Coast Conference Awards went to Freshman Kerry Ceurvels for Rookie of the Year and Beth Gemma received nomination to the Second Team All-Conference. Coach Mick Klitzner looks forward to next season with many returning talented players.

Ice Hockey

The 1993 Hockey team finished 4th in the league in the regular season with a 10-10; 6-6 NECHA record and hosted a first-round playoff game. They advanced to the semifinals with a win over Bryant College but lost a heartbreaking double-overtime contest to top-seed and eventual league champion WPI to finish 3rd for the playoffs. Newcomer Larry Birmingham led the Newporters in scoring for the season. A goodbye was said to seniors Marc McKenna, Mike Cox, and Jared Martin.

Women's Tennis

The 1992 Women's Tennis team captured its fourth consecutive Commonwealth Coast Conference Championship. This season they did it with almost an entirely new cast: eight freshman and one sophomore. The MVPs for the 1992 season went to Kristen Gangemi and Sue MacAulay. Coach Habershaw also gave Beth Rafanelli the Coach's Award. Sophomore Sue MacAuley carried the best overall singles record with 11 wins and 7 losses. Freshman Lesley Gray earned the best doubles record with 9 wins and 6 losses.

Track

This year was an exceptional surprise for the track teams at Salve. With talented Co-Captains Michelle Fobert and Tracy Carter, the team set dozens of school records grabbing the Tri-State Championship. Other record setters were Heidi Pelletier in the 100, 200, and 400 meters; Tanya Smart in Long and Triple Jump; and Colleen Murphy in the Hammer. The team sent seven events to All New Englands and was just short of nationals with Pelletier's amazing 7.48 sec in the 55 meter. With such a strong team lined up for next year, coach Mick Klitzner has every reason to celebrate.

20 Years Of Service

1993 marks Sr. Lucille's 20th year as acting President of Salve Regina University. The Regina Maris salutes Sr. Lucille for her efforts and talents. Salve Regina University is a testament to her undying energy, devotion, and determination. We hereby dedicate the 1993 Regina Maris to Sr. Lucille McKillop. Thank-you for 20 wonderful years. You are truly special and unique. Here's to a future filled with progress and growth.

(Upper Right) Kath Lombard and Michaela Marcotte present Sr. Lucille with a gift from the University at the Mass in dedication 1993.

Dear Members of the Class of '93:

What a marvelous memory book you have put together in the 1993 edition of Regina Maris!

You, members of the Class of '93, have done great things together—creating warm memories and friendships that will last a lifetime while, at the same time, you have helped others. This yearbook will evoke all the wonderful associations, friendships and shared experiences during your Salve years.

In future years, as you turn these pages in fond recollection, I know that you will ever more vividly appreciate the lasting worth of this wonderful chapter in your life story.

I have enjoyed sharing my 20th anniversary year with all of you and I am grateful for the lessons I have learned from you—the lesson of holding onto ideals through the years. Ideals fill our lives with eternal freshness and the deep springs of life.

May God bless you always as you continue your endeavors to become your own best self and to help others to become the best they can be also.

Yours sincerely,

Lucille McKillop, RSM
President

Commencement Ball

May 14 was a night filled with tears and joy as the Class Of '93 spent their last night at Salve in style. Mike Schnabel addressed the class for the last time remembering the past four years that had gone by so quickly for him and his classmates. Highlights of the night included Miss Piggy's serenade in honor of Missy Moulton's birthday. Another surprise was Kristine Ratte's acceptance of Michael Manning's marriage proposal. Special thanks to Class President Mike Schnabel, Vice President Kim Grimaldi, Secretary Kathleen Lombard and Treasure Coleen Gleason. Your efforts will always be remembered.

Graduation

Pomp and circumstance there was as the 1993 graduates marched their way towards what most call the future. The Congress of the United States and the State of Rhode Island greeted the enthusiastic graduates and Sister Lucille gave her annual pep talk. She smiled upon the graduates with pride as she looked back at her past twenty years at Salve. Four honorary degrees were awarded. Madeleine San Souci, RSM, Doctor of Education; Chief Justice Thomas Fay, Doctor of Laws; and Mark P. Malkovich III, Doctor of Music.

In Memory

Near Shady Wall A Rose Once Grew,
Budded And Blossomed In God's Free Light,
Watered And Fled By Mourning Dew, Shedding
Its Sweetness Day And Night

As It Grew and Blossomed Fair And Tall,
Slowly Rising To Loftier Height,
It Came To A Crevice In The Wall,
Through Which There Shone A Beam Of Light

Onward It Crept With Added Strength
With Never A Thought Of Fear Or Pride
It Followed The Light,
And Unfolded Itself On The Other Side
The Light, The Dew, The Broadening View
Were Found The Same As They Were Before
And It Lost Itself In Beauties New,
Breathing Its Fragrance More And More

Shall Claim Of Death Cause Us To Grieve
And Make Our Courage Faint And Fall?
Nay! Let Us Faith And Hope Receive
The Rose Still Grows Beyond The Wall
Scattering Fragrance Far And Wide
Just As It Did In Days Of Yore,
Just As It Did On The Other Side,
Just As It Will Forevermore.

Congratulations to Kristen McManus on her graduation with the Salve Regina Class of 1993!

Kristen has made us all very proud of her many many accomplishments. Our best wishes to her classmates, for continued success in all your future endeavors. Hard work and determination have brought you all to this day and will continue to serve you well in the future. As you each venture to take charge of your future take with you the words of Calvin Coolidge, spoken in 1932, as they will serve you well:

“Nothing in the world can take place of persistence. Talent will not; nothing is more common than unsuccessful men with talent. Genius will not; unrewarded genius is almost a proverb. Education will not; the world is full of educated derelicts. Persistence and determination alone are omnipotent.” Press on!

Our best wishes for your continued health, happiness and success,

Attorney and Mrs. Vincent T. McManus, Jr.

To The Class of 1993:

So much has changed since you arrived here as Freshmen in 1989. Think back to that summer, and you see a world vastly different from the one that now lies before you. Whole countries have ceased to exist; once mighty nations have splintered, and new republics are emerging in their wake. Even our own world here in Newport has seen great change. Our College has become a University and our new library has evolved into a state-of-the-art center for research and learning. And you, members of the Class of 1993, have changed most of all. Look deeply into yourselves and be aware of those changes.

This book captures many of those changes as they were happening. Through photographs and words, these pages serve as a testament to your college days. I hope you will savor each word and image, and think back to a time when you and the world were very different indeed.

I wish to thank the staff of the 1993 Regina Maris for organizing these thoughts, photos, and memories, into a very special book. Special thanks must go to the two Co-editors Eileen Katis and Jill Fabian for their successful pursuit of excellence in producing a book worthy of their talents. Two other names also synonymous with excellence and who have served their class above and beyond the call of office are the Senior Class President Michael Schnabel, and Kathleen Lombard, President of the Student Life Senate. These four, along with many others, helped to make the Class of 1993 very special and full of individuals I will never forget.

Best Wishes,

Gerry Willis
Yearbook Advisor

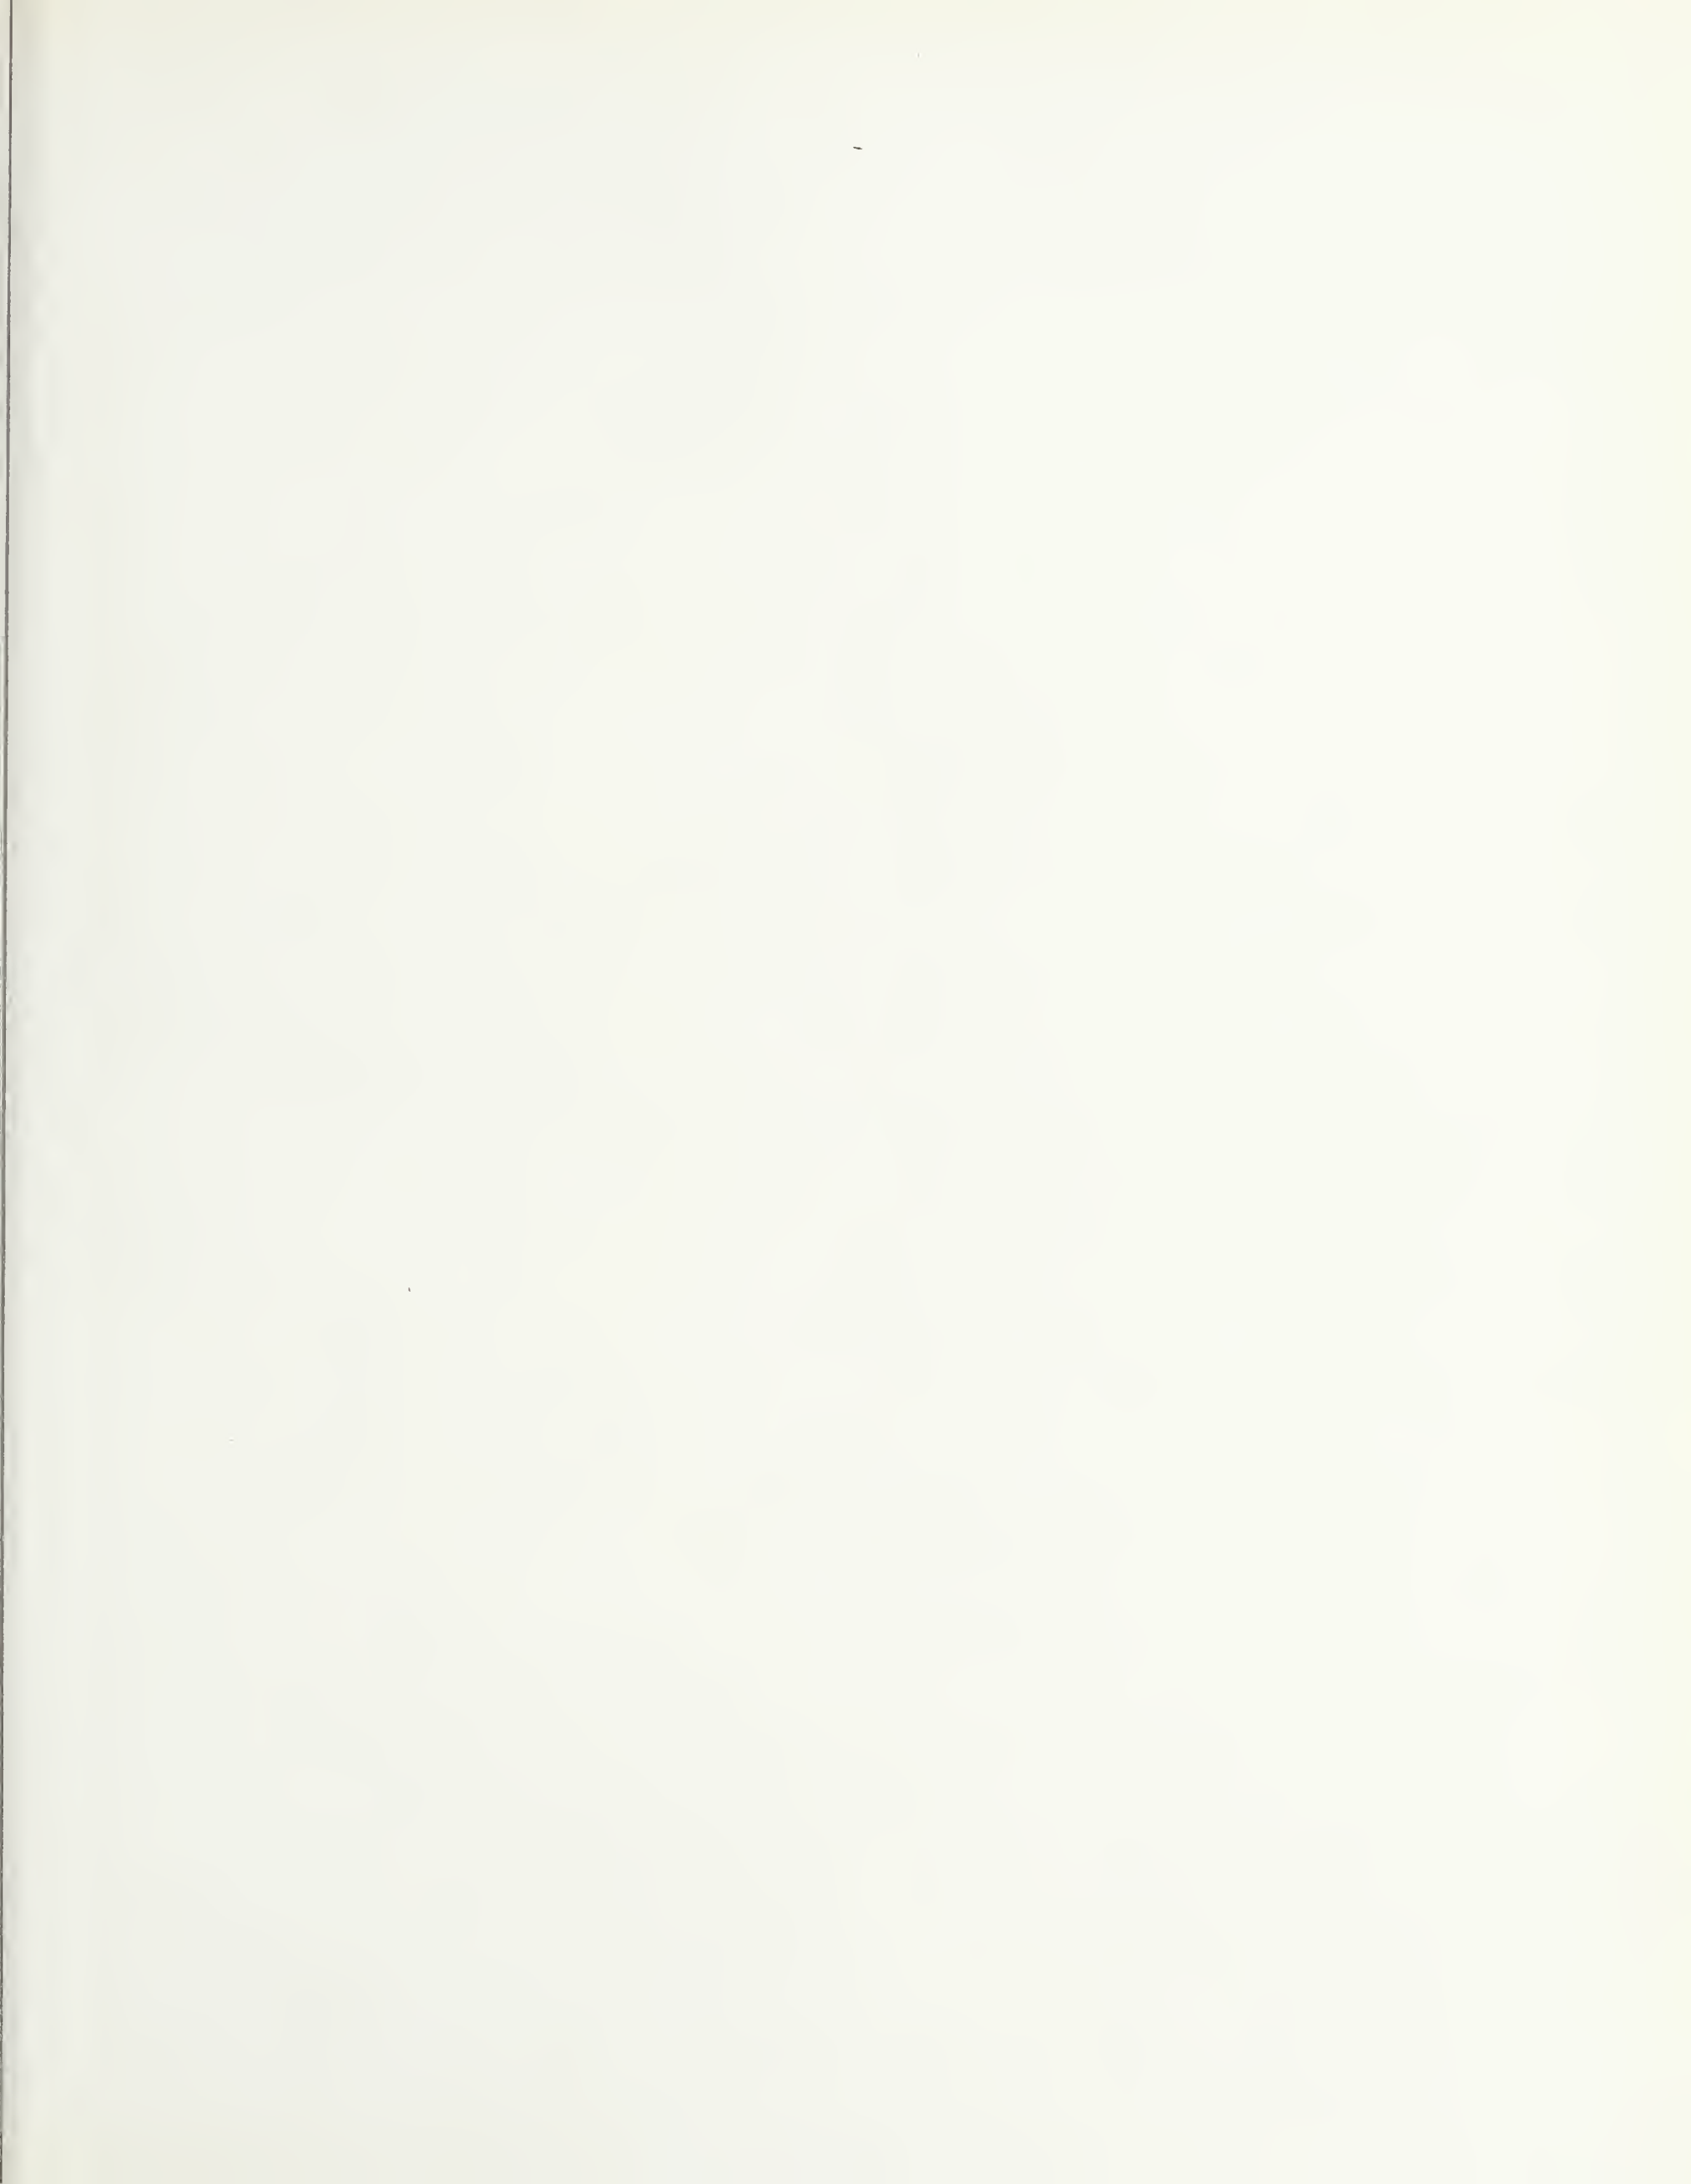

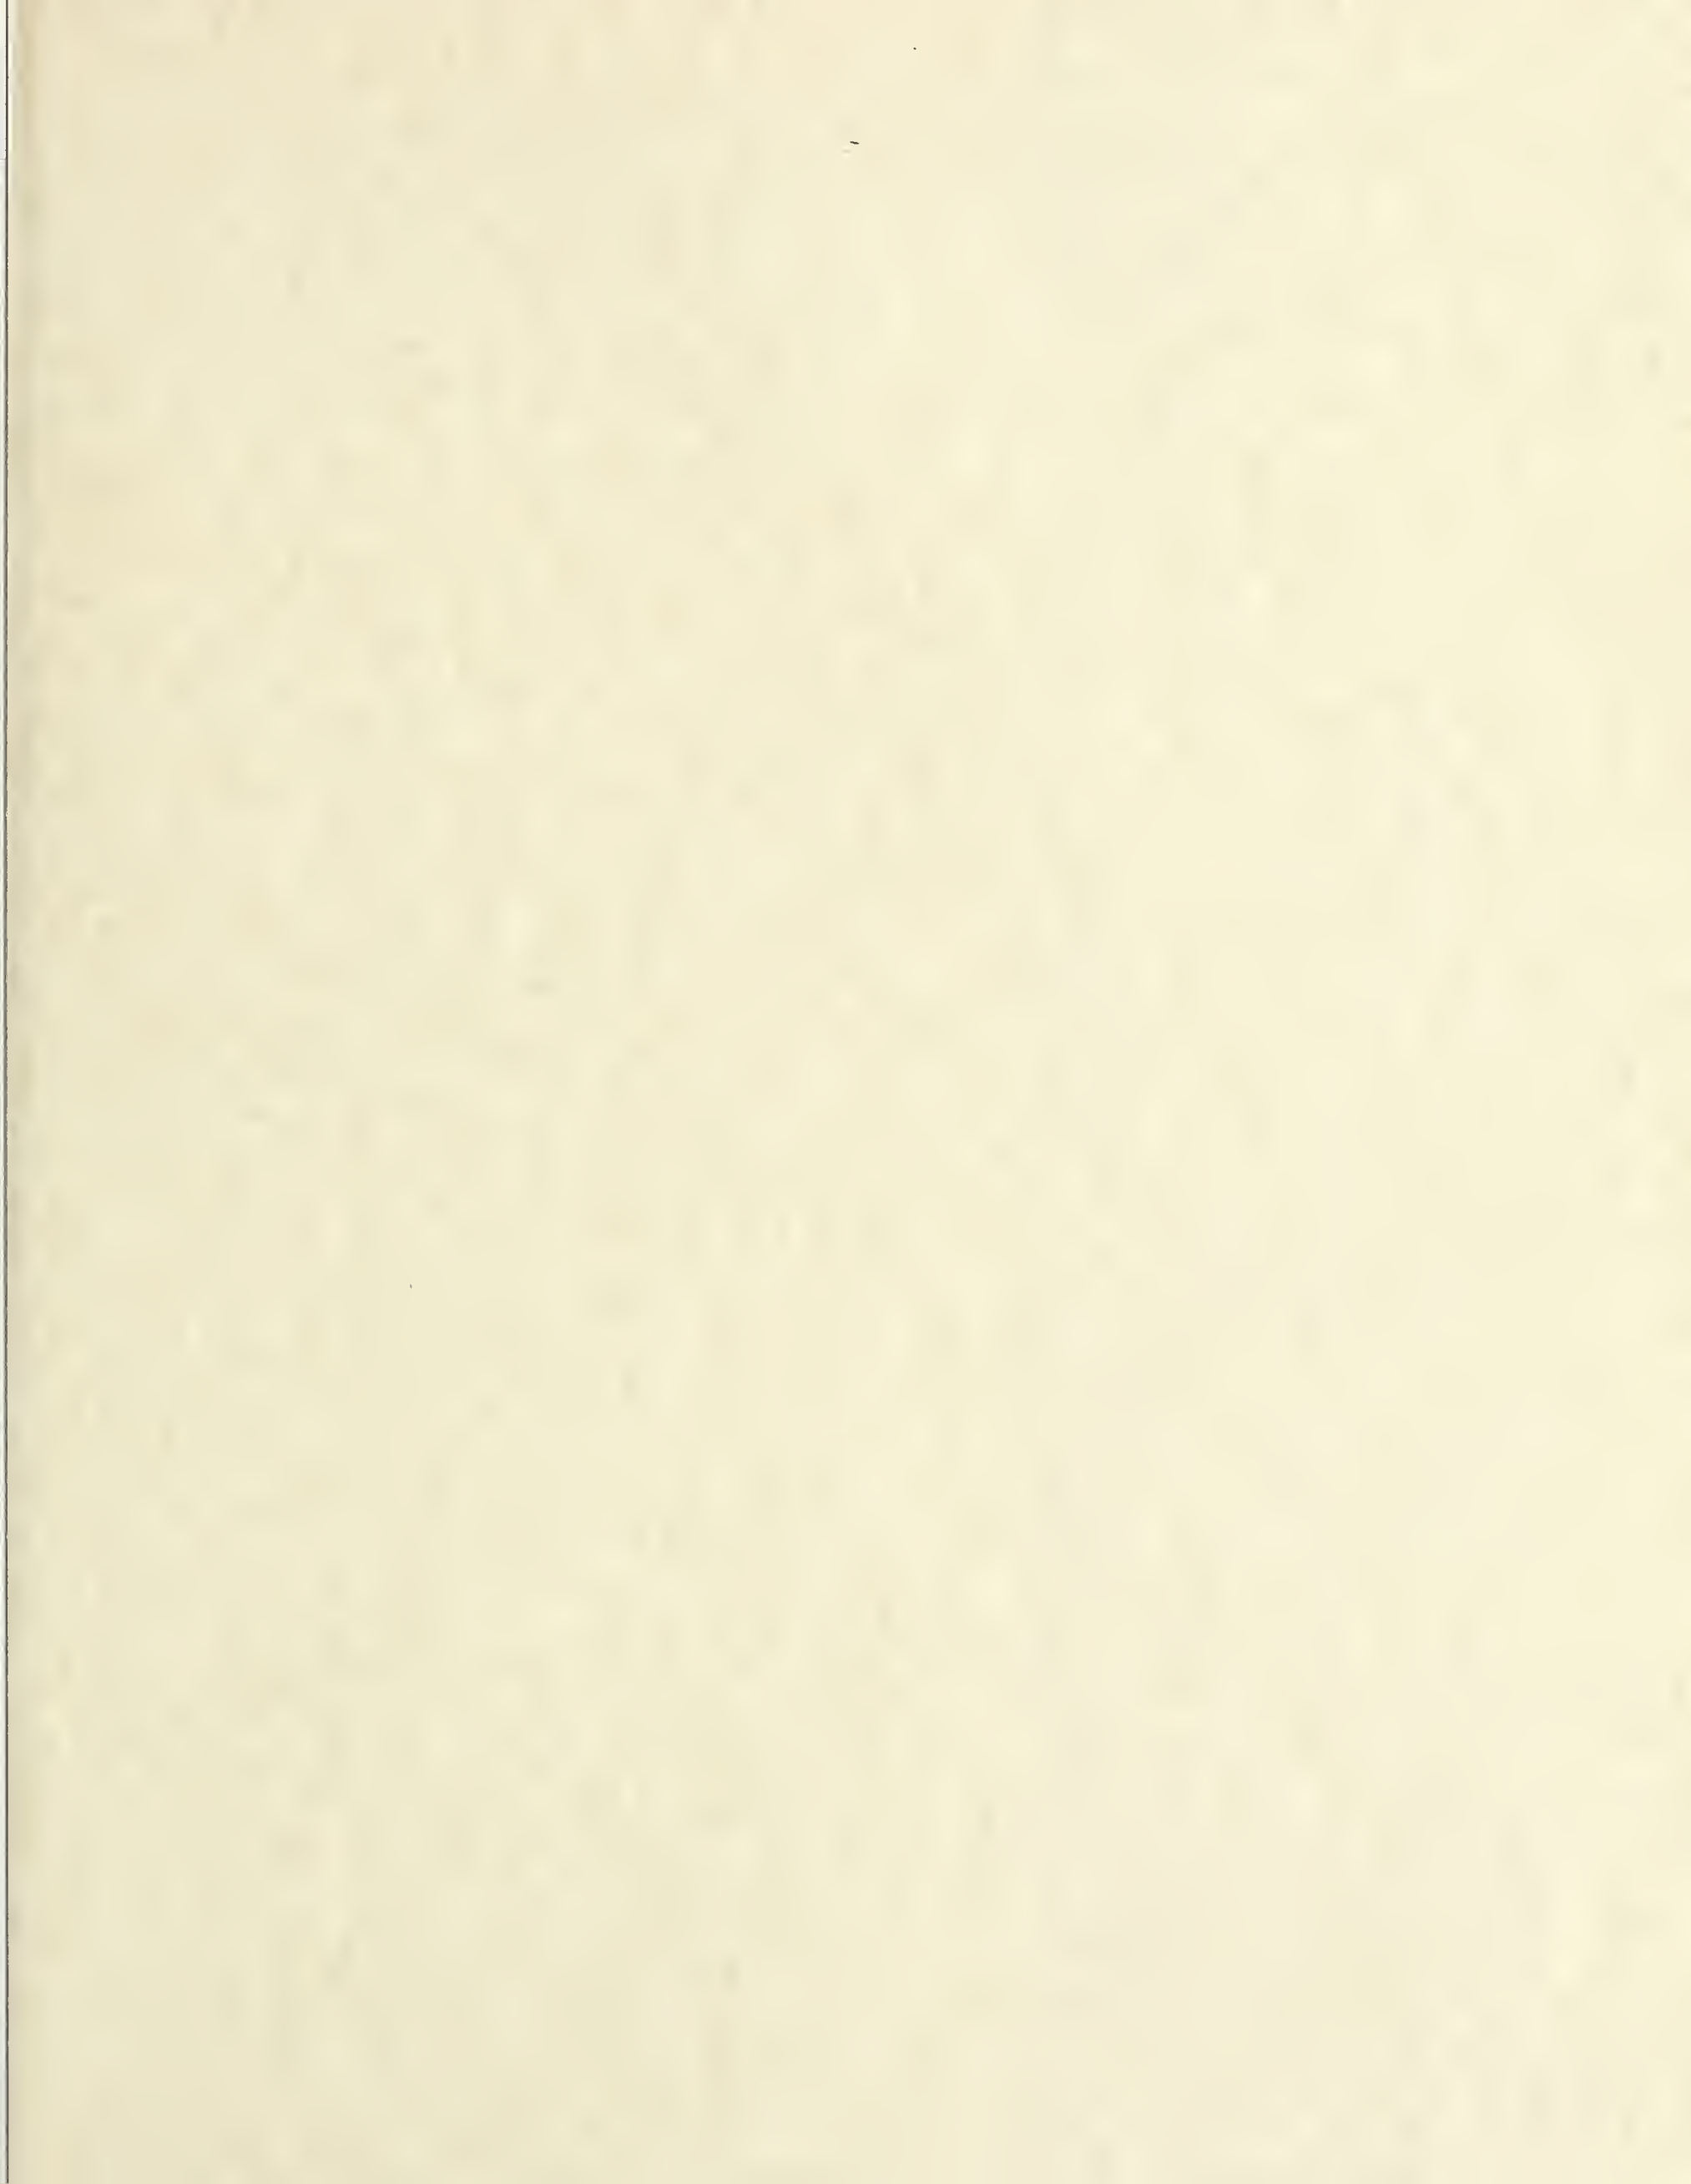

The Last Word

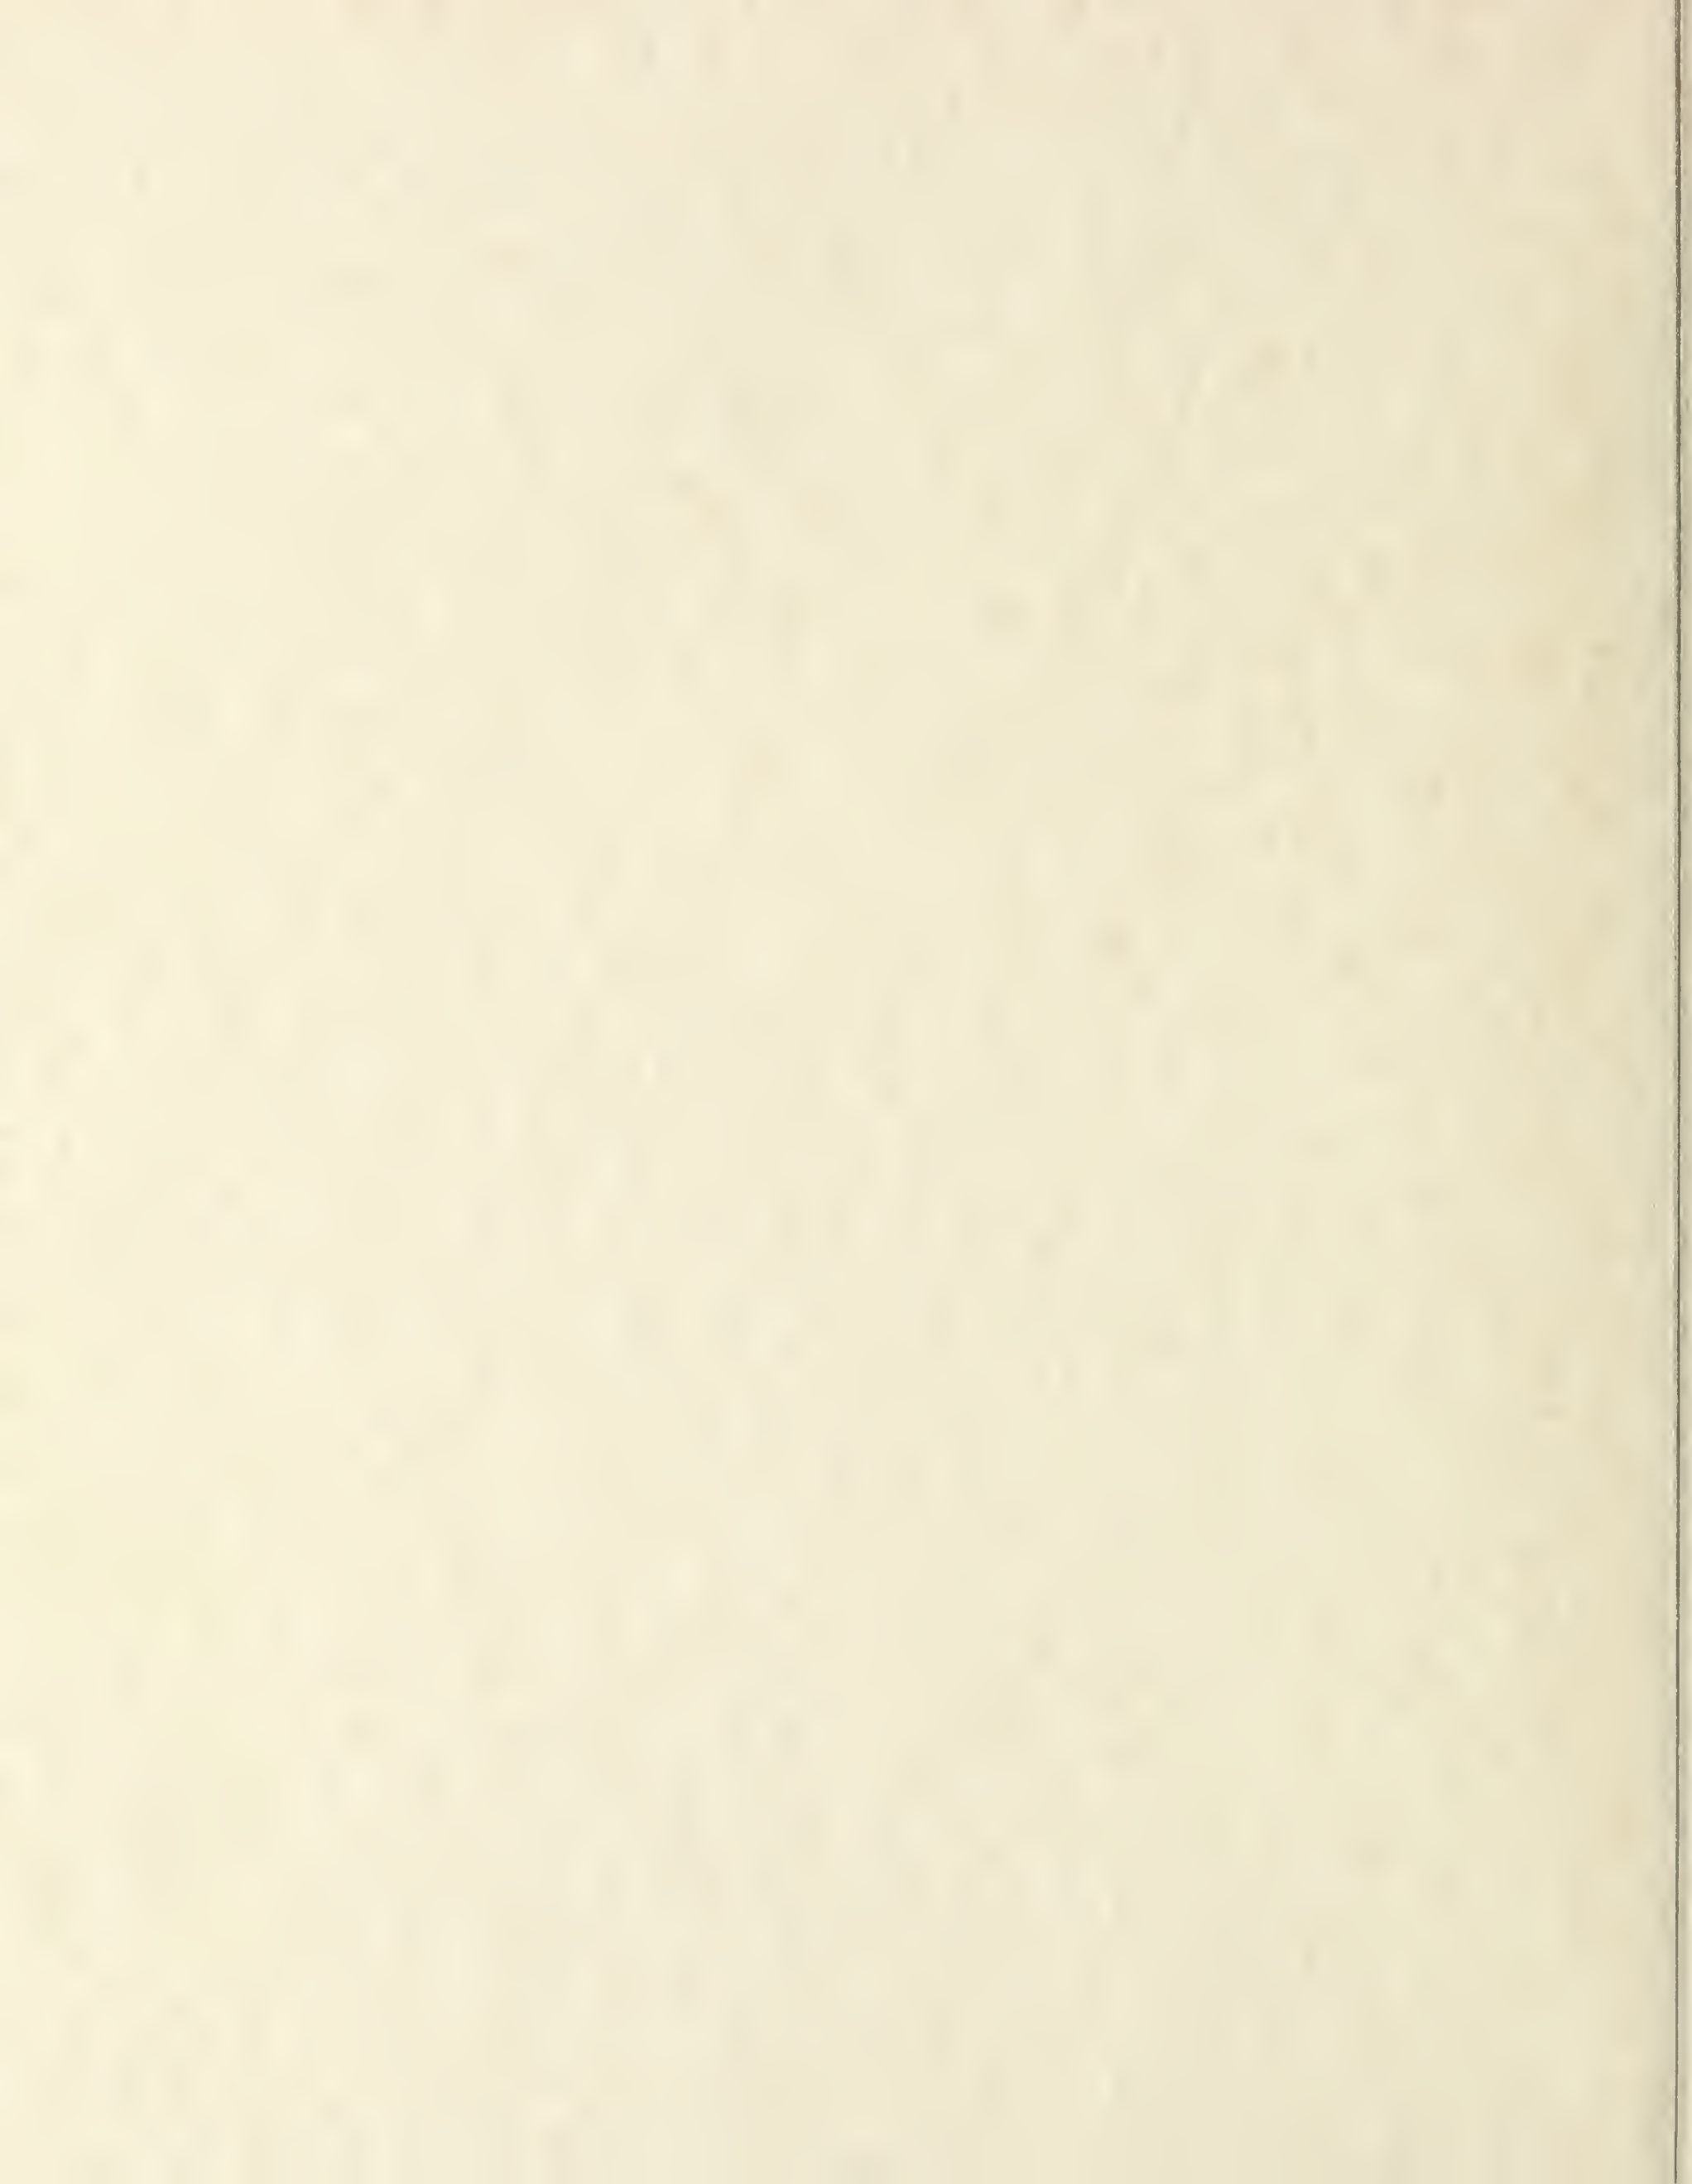

What a year, what a book! How can something be so long, and yet so short at the same time? Just as you will flip through this book and hold on to your sweet memories so will we remember how each and every word, picture, and thought created each page of this book. Each page of this book represents a piece of each of us. So, in a way, this year will live forever within the confines of this book. We hope you will take the time to remember these years and somehow this book will be a part of that remembering. Just as a book must have chapters, the Regina Maris will close the chapter entitled college. When you open this book you will be able to read this chapter of your life over and over again. Yet, if you choose you can close this book and lock away these memories in some dusty attic. We hope that this chapter will live on and on for you in the words and pictures of the 1993 Regina Maris. So as you begin the next chapter in the book of your life, don't forget 1993 awaits you in the Final Masterpeice.

Eileen Katis
Jill Fabian
Co-Editors-in-chief

About The Artist:

The etching of Ochre Court, shown on the front cover, is the creation of Armond Lamontagne a sculptor/artist hailing from Scituate, R.I. Lamontagne, a self taught artist, who studied in Italy as the recipient of the Grinell Foundation Award, is mainly known for his wooden sculptures of such Sport personalities as Ted Williams, Larry Bird, Bobby Orr, and Carl Yastrzemski. Lamontagne has also sculpted such historical legends as George S. Patton Jr., and Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt.

Feature bronze busts have been done of former President Gerald Ford and Elvis Presley. Elvis can be seen on display in the Singer's Hall-of-Fame in Nashville, Tennessee. Lamontagne has also painted official State portraits for Governor J. Joseph Garrahy and former Speaker of the R.I. House of Representatives, Matthew J. Smith. Armond Lamontagne's daughter, Lisa, is Senior here at Salve Regina University.

Colophon:

The 1993 Regina Maris was published by Jostens Inc. State College, Pennsylvania.

It is printed on 80 pound gloss text paper. All headlines are printed in 36 point, all body in 10 point, and all caption copy in 8 point.

All copy is in Times Roman. The divider pages for each section are set in Zapf-Chancery 48 point.

The dust cover is printed on 100 pound gloss stock; in two inks. The cover artist is Armond Lamontagne.

Senior photographers: John Corbett, Armor, and Todd Margolis. The publication is bound in a Leathertone Fabricoid (Lexatone).

The Year in Review features shadows of 30 percent black second color. The Senior section features 8 pages of process color.
